How Will Fayette County Fare in Road Program?

New Super Highway To Eclipse Turnpike

Can you envision a super highway in Fayette County with even more modern engineering than the Ohio or Pennsylvania turnpikes? It's far from a dream, five Washington C. H. Chamber of Commerce and Fayette Highway Committee executives learned Tuesday during a conference with Elmer Barrett and Associates, Chillicothe engineering firm, which has a contract to study and make recommendations for a part of a proposed limited access freeway between the Cleveland - Cincinnati area and Cincinnati.

And a part of that new highway, which replaces the Cleveland-Cincinnati turnpike on state and federal planning boards, will be built through northwestern Fayette County.

The local delegation met with the study engineers for a dual purpose—to find out what is in the cards and how Washington C. H. and Fayette County generally are going to be affected by a super thoroughfare which will relegate the present CCC Highway to secondary importance.

Iranian Slayer Of Yank Shot

TEHRAN, Iran (AP)—The Interior Minister announced today that a tribesman had killed the slayer of Mrs. Anita Carroll in a two-hour gunfight outside a village in southeastern Iran.

A ministry spokesman said tribesmen, armed by the government to track down the slayers of Mrs. Carroll, her husband and another American, had gunned down Ghassemlou, the assistant of fugitive bandit chief Dardas.

The announcement said tribesmen spotted Ghassemlou while he was trying to enter Benet village to get food and water for the other members of the gang.

The spokesman said Ghassemlou was the bandit who shot Mrs. Carroll after the other Americans and two Iranians who were killed in an ambush March 24.

Two other bandits were slain and another captured early in the hunt. Troops and police were ordered to step up their search for the remaining fugitives in the desert 800 miles southeast of here.

The slaying of Kevin Carroll, U. S. Point Four aid official, his wife and Brewster Wilson, has prompted the resignation of Prime Minister Hussein Ala.

Ala, 79, is to be replaced by Dr. Manouchehr Eghbal, 49-year-old court minister to Shah Mohammed Reza Pahlavi. A government source said failure to find the Americans' killers immediately convinced Ala the country needed a stronger prime minister.

Heavy Snow In Rockies

DENVER (AP)—The heaviest spring snowstorm in 22 years moved out of the Rocky Mountain states today, leaving five dead and abundant water for the area pinched by drought since 1949.

Jubilant farm leaders said the stacks of snow, some as high as five feet, on the mountain watersheds more than offset any livestock losses. The parched plains were drenched.

Schools in Denver, Cheyenne, Wyo., and most other cities joined rural districts in closing down until Thursday.

Rail, highway and air travel, snarled and erratic for 36 hours, was due to return to normal today.

Heaviest snowfalls were reported in the mountains and in cities along the eastern slope of the Rockies. Denver measured 16 inches (heaviest spring fall since 20 inches in April 1935), Colorado Springs 5, Cheyenne 10 and Leadville, two miles high in the central Colorado Rockies, 27.

"This is the greatest thing that could have happened moisture-wise to our state," said Gov. Steve McNichols of Colorado.

Paul Swisher, Colorado agriculture commissioner, said the storm "might be the forerunner of the end of the drought" that set in eight years ago.

Cleveland Woman Kills 2 Children, then Is Suicide

CLEVELAND (AP)—"How could she have been so sick as to do that?"

The man who asked the question had been called from his job as a printer to answer the telephone late Tuesday afternoon.

His wife had drowned two of their six children then killed herself by slashing her wrists.

"I just can't feel it yet," said John Flynn, 45, bewildered on his thin face and his hands shaking.

His 10-year-old son, Nicholas, uncovered the tragedy at the neat little home in Parma Heights, when the boy returned from school.

Mrs. Catherine Flynn, 43, was almost submerged in the bathtub. Both of her wrists had been cut deeply with a straight edge razor.

In their cribs and covered were the little girls, Cynthia, 4, and Cecilia, 6. A deputy coroner said both had been drowned before they were placed in the bed. The deaths, he said, must have occurred about 1:30 p. m.

Police chief Thomas A. Vanderquy of Parma Heights said Mrs. Flynn was in Lakewood Hospital last December after a nervous breakdown and later spent six weeks in the state receiving hospital, from which she was released Feb. 17.

In addition to the 7-month-old baby, Maria, Nicholas and the two girls who died there were two girls, Barbara and Christina, 7.

When Mrs. Flynn returned from the hospital, she visited the children at relatives', where they had been staying and wanted them back here with her. Flynn agreed, but arranged that they could be housed temporarily at Parmadale Catholic Children's Home should his wife have a relapse.

At the house was a thick book about gynecological problems—the physical and mental ailments of women. Flynn had borrowed it from a friend in the hope of gaining understanding—and perhaps helping to overcome—the difficulties that had beset his mate of 15 years.

The Victor!

RALPH YARBOROUGH

Democrat Wins Texas Election

Yarborough Is Sent To Seat in Senate

DALLAS (AP)—Democrats nailed down control of the U. S. Senate today with a victory by Ralph Yarborough over 18 other Texas candidates.

The affable Yarborough, 53, came back from four previous election defeats to swamp another Democrat, the nationally known Rep. Martin Dies of Un-American Activities Committee fame, and the GOP hopeful, Thad Hutcheson, his only close opponents.

Republicans had high hopes of winning with Hutcheson and taking over Senate leadership. The Democrats have a 49-47 edge there now. A GOP victory would have created a 48-48 tie. Vice President Nixon would have had the tiebreaking vote.

President Eisenhower had endorsed Hutcheson and he waged a vigorous campaign, backed solidly by the state GOP machinery.

The vote was expected to run little more than half that of the general election last November when more than 1,800,000 Texans cast ballots.

YARBOROUGH increased his lead as late returns came in today. The latest count gave him 314,035 votes, or 37.06 per cent of the total cast. Dies had 257,627, or 30.40 per cent, and Hutcheson 203,800, or 24.05 per cent.

Voters concentrated on the big three, with three other candidates of state wide prominence getting insignificant ballot totals.

State Sen. Searcy Bracewell had 30,539, Austin Attorney James P. Hart, former University of Texas chancellor and former state Supreme Court Justice, 17,748, and state Agriculture Commissioner John C. White 9,184.

The other 13 candidates got only a handful of votes.

The victor is a strong party backer. He refused to bolt to President Eisenhower in 1952 and 1956 when many Texas Democrats went over to the President's side.

Israel Chief Sees Peace as Doubtful

JERUSALEM (AP)—Prime Minister David Ben-Gurion told Parliament Tuesday night there is little chance of a Middle East peace as long as Egypt's President Nasser "and the present generation of Arab rulers are in power."

Big Pay Boosts Face Elimination

Ohio Legislature Wrestles Problem

COLUMBUS (AP)—Ohio's appointed officials who got whopping pay increases less than three months ago are about to lose them. Just how soon apparently depends on the Democratic minority in the Ohio Legislature.

The increases were approved last January within 24 hours after the Legislature started its session. If Senate Democrats hadn't decided to protest Tuesday, Cabinet officials would have lost their pay boosts as quickly as they were won.

Republican Gov. C. William O'Neill, in a complete policy reversal, asked the astonished Legislature Tuesday to revoke the pay raises he demanded last January. And he declared he felt "damn good" about reversing his decision.

Senate Republicans, after an afternoon caucus, advanced the Senate session today by 2½ hours to rush the pay-cut bill through and give the House a chance to pass it late today if it so desired.

But Senate Democrats, who have enough votes to block suspension of the Senate's normal rules of procedure, blocked consideration of the bill at an unusual morning session today.

Senate Majority Leader C. Stanley Mechem (R-Athens) said no attempt will be made to suspend the rules in view of the Democratic opposition, and said the Senate will vote on the bill Thursday in the normal course of events.

At least one Democratic vote will be required Thursday to pass the bill as an emergency measure. Emergency bills become law as soon as they are signed by the governor.

Each top state official except Highway Chief Charles M. Noble and the director of mental hygiene and correction, as yet unnamed, shares in the proposed cut.

Noble stays at $30,000 ($5,000 more than the governor is paid) and the unfilled post of mental hygiene director drops from $25,000 to $18,000 a year. Previously, the job paid $12,000 a year.

Asked about the possible political consequence by his on-again-off-again salary policy, O'Neill replied: "You could debate the political consequences by the hour. But I always have believed that if you do what you believe to be right, that it always good politics. I feel damn good about the decision because I believe it is right."

All department directors involved in the pay slash, O'Neill declared, have agreed to remain in his Cabinet at the lower pay.

Democrats had a field day as O'Neill admitted his error on salaries and asked the Legislature to reverse its field.

And Bartunek said: "The complete reversal of Gov. O'Neill and his demands for exorbitant salaries for executive heads of government is a direct result of the efforts of the Democratic minority."

"Although we commend the majority for having the courage to reverse its stand, we will not (Please turn to page fourteen)

Two Fishermen Drown

Bodies Found in Rocky Fork Lake

The rough waters of Rocky Fork Lake, Highland County, yielded the bodies of two fishermen about midnight Tuesday, after a 50-man searching party had hunted them nearly three hours.

Apparently drowned when their boat capsized in the choppy waters were Sam McCullough, 46, a one-time Greenfield policeman, and Virgil Minturn, 49, who was employed with McCullough as a guard in the North American Aviation Co., Columbus.

Bodies of the two were found, face down in the water, less than half a mile west of Lucky Landing dock, from which the men had happily set out on a fishing trip around noon Tuesday. Their boat was found, capsized, about a half mile off shore.

They were discovered about 12-

Livestockmen Seek Publicity For Red Meat

WASHINGTON (AP)—Livestock producers, seeking to boost the use of "red meat," are asking congressional approval of a plan to collect promotion money from the sale of cattle, sheep and hogs.

A Senate Agriculture subcommittee heard more than 60 livestock producers, including Ohio man, ask permission to collect 10 cents on each head of cattle and 5 cents on each head of sheep and hogs sold at public markets.

The money would be put into a fund to promote the sale of cattle, sheep and hog meat over poorer types of meat. The producers term the promotion drive a "self-help program."

Mark Knoop, a livestock producer from Troy, Ohio, said most packers and retailers are interested only in promoting low-priced meat.

He added that the promotion of high-type meat would not only help the livestock producers, but would also help the corn farmers.

"When an individual eats a pound of prime-fed beef he is also consuming the equivalent of 25 pounds of corn," Knoop said. "I consider that as utilizing corn to a much better advantage than having it owned by the government and stored in bins throughout the corn belt."

Ohio State Highway Patrolman Russell Duffy of Leroy was also cited for his part in the capture of triple slayer Alfred Wilson near Warren last summer.

Tornado Slashes at Dallas, Leaving 9 Dead, 400 Hurt

DALLAS (AP)—A huge tornado that spun out of an ominous, black rain cloud cut a deadly 21-mile path across Dallas Tuesday afternoon as thousands watched in fear and awe. At least nine persons were killed.

And as rescue workers probed the wreckage for others still reported missing the Weather Bureau warned that more tornadoes could be expected today.

Some 196 injured persons were treated at hospitals. Unofficial estimates placed the injured as high as 400.

No official estimate of damage had been made, but Assistant Police Chief Jess Curry said it would be more than $1½ million.

Unofficial estimates said 800 homes and business buildings were destroyed or damaged.

Tornadoes also plowed into southern Oklahoma and killed at least five persons. Another person was killed near Paris, Tex., as a series of tornadoes skipped around north Texas.

THE TORNADO lashed out of a black rainstorm. An estimated hundred thousand people watched as it swayed a leisurely, jerky course from South Oak, Cliff through west Dallas and north-west Dallas. For 40 horror-filled minutes the lashing funnel filled the dark sky above a frozen city.

Passengers and crew of a Braniff Airlines plane watched from the air as the plane circled after takeoff from Dallas' Love Field.

Traffic piled up into fantastic jams all over western Dallas.

"Oh, lawd, it roared down like a freight train and then was on us tearing our house down," Robert Thurman, 31, sobbed. Blood oozed from a wound in his head.

President Says Such Reports Without Basis

Chief also Holds Hope For Tax Cut, Pleads Slower Auto Travel

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower said today reports he will resign before the end of his second term and turn his duties over to Vice President Nixon are the worst rot he has heard since taking office.

The President also told his news conference that the prospects are good for future tax reductions. But he declined to forecast any cuts next year.

A reporter had told Eisenhower there have been reports and rumors lately that he might step out of the presidency, when world conditions permit, and have Nixon take over.

Eisenhower appeared to register some surprise. Then he said emphatically those reports are the worst rot he has heard since he has been in office.

Showing irritation, the President said he knows of no reason why any speculative writer should doubt his basic integrity.

He recalled that at the time he announced for a second term he reported that his doctors felt he was able to carry on, and that he himself had decided he was able to do so.

THE FIRST question put to Eisenhower by newsmen was a request for comment on his fast trip to Gettysburg last weekend.

A reporter told him the trip got a lot of attention because newsmen trying to keep up with his car were flummoxed.

With a slow smile, Eisenhower replied that for a good many years he has used the back seat of his car to carry on conferences.

He said that on the trip last Friday he was engaged in a conference. He made the journey with Col. Walter R. Tkach, assistant White House physician.

Newsmen who accompanied Eisenhower last Friday reported his limousine hit 75 miles an hour at times. Nowhere along the 80 mile route does the speed limit permit more than 55 miles an hour.

Eisenhower then told newsmen he has issued orders that his limousine is never to exceed the speed limit at any place.

On other matters—Taxes and budget—Eisenhower said he certainly hopes there can be a tax cut before the end of his second term but he declined to speculate as to just when a reduction may be possible.

As for the administration's $71.8 billion budget for the fiscal year beginning July 1, Eisenhower said he sees no chance for what he called a substantial cut such as $2 billion.

"BUT EFFORTS are being made constantly to find ways to achieve savings," he said, adding that the goal is to tighten up wherever possible without abandoning essential programs.

In the specific field of foreign aid, Eisenhower noted he said last week that some savings might be possible in the military aspect of that program, as well as in certain other areas.

But he said the Administration still is committed to its basic request for $4.4 billion in mutual security aid for the fiscal year.

Chinese islands—Eisenhower said he never has given the Chinese Nationalists any assurance the United States would help defend the island of Quemoy and Matsu if Red China attempted to take them.

This statement came when he was asked for comment on a new biography of Secretary of State Dulles. The author, John Robinson Beal, wrote that Eisenhower sent Nationalist China's president Chiang Kai-shek a secret personal letter "satisfying him the United States would help defend Quemoy and Matsu."

Eisenhower said forcefully he never has given assurances to anyone in foreign areas that go beyond the intent of U. S. law. In this case he was referring to a 1956 congressional resolution pledging the United States would defend Formosa and the Pescadores against any attack by the Chinese Reds.

THE FIRST PART of the over-

THE BARRETT FIRM is merely making a study of possible routes between Harrisburg and Wilmington with a report, along with preliminary cost estimates, to be ready by May 1.

Only after the preliminary report is made will a new contract be let for detailed plans and specifications. Actual construction of a new highway may be two years away—maybe less—maybe more.

But the local group learned that the contemplated highway will be an entirely new project built along modern turnpike standards. Whether it will cross the northwestern quadrant of Fayette County eight to 10 miles north of Washington C. H. or whether it will be closer to the city, no one as yet knows.

But it will not be a bypass—it will be a new route entirely with no connection apparently with the present CCC Highway which will, of course, remain as an alternate improved route between Cincinnati and Columbus, with unlimited access by farmers and others along it.

HERE, BRIEFLY, are some of the probabilities:

The new freeway will be a four-lane divided roadway with median strip.

27 Race Horses Die in Track Fire

TOLEDO (AP)—Twenty seven race horses died today when a barn went up in flames at Fort Miami Raceway, which opened a 44-day race meeting Tuesday.

Every horse in the barn either died in the fire, or was burned so badly it had to be destroyed.

Track employees formed a bucket brigade, and set horses free from adjoining barns. Firemen from nearby Maumee and Adams Twp. confined the blaze to the single barn, one of 16 at the track.

Police and sheriff's deputies helped round up the horses which had been set free.

In addition to the 7-month-old baby, Maria, Nicholas and the two girls who died there were twin girls, Barbara and Christina, 7.

When Mrs. Flynn returned from probably will be by means of not more than two interchanges with existing highways (Route 35 and Route 38 for example).

There are no present plans for tying in other roads.

Policies on business development in the vicinity of the highway have not been formulated, but probably no businesses other than restaurants and service facilities will be permitted along the right of way, and these will be carefully regulated and under state supervision.

While an airline route between Columbus and Cincinnati will place the highway north and west of Washington C. H. just how far from the city may depend on whether the right of way selected is north or south of Wilmington.

The section handed to the Barrett firm for study is, of course, part of an over-all Cincinnati proposal to be engineered for defense use as well as to relieve congestion on present interstate highways.

Populated areas will be avoided whenever possible.

THE FIRST PART of the over-

THE BARRETT FIRM is merely making a study of possible routes between Harrisburg and Wilmington with a report, along with preliminary cost estimates, to be ready by May 1.

Only after the preliminary report is made will a new contract be let for detailed plans and specifications. Actual construction of a new highway may be two years away—maybe less—maybe more.

But the local group learned that the contemplated highway will be an entirely new project built along modern turnpike standards. Whether it will cross the northwestern quadrant of Fayette County eight to 10 miles north of Washington C. H. or whether it will be closer to the city, no one as yet knows.

But it will not be a bypass—it will be a new route entirely with no connection apparently with the present CCC Highway which will, of course, remain as an alternate improved route between Cincinnati and Columbus, with unlimited access by farmers and others along it.

HERE, BRIEFLY, are some of the probabilities:

The new freeway will be a four-lane divided roadway with median strip.

27 Race Horses Die in Track Fire

TOLEDO (AP)—Twenty seven race horses died today when a barn went up in flames at Fort Miami Raceway, which opened a 44-day race meeting Tuesday.

Every horse in the barn either died in the fire, or was burned so badly it had to be destroyed.

Track employees formed a bucket brigade, and set horses free from adjoining barns. Firemen from nearby Maumee and Adams Twp. confined the blaze to the single barn, one of 16 at the track.

Police and sheriff's deputies helped round up the horses which had been set free.

CLEVELAND (AP)—How could she have been so sick as to do that?

The man who asked the question had been called from his job as a printer to answer the telephone late Tuesday afternoon.

His wife had drowned two of their six children then killed herself by slashing her wrists.

"I just can't feel it yet," said John Flynn, 45, bewilderment on his thin face and his hands shaking.

His 10-year-old son, Nicholas, uncovered the tragedy at the neat little home in Parma Heights, when the boy returned from school.

Mrs. Catherine Flynn, 43, was almost submerged in the bathtub. Both of her wrists had been cut deeply with a straight edge razor.

In their cribs and covered were the little girls, Cynthia, 4, and Cecilia, 6. A deputy coroner said both had been drowned before they were placed in the bed. The deaths, he said, must have occurred about 1:30 p. m.

RALPH YARBOROUGH

Democrat Wins Texas Election

Yarborough Is Sent To Seat in Senate

DALLAS (AP)—Democrats nailed down control of the U. S. Senate today with a victory by Ralph Yarborough over 18 other Texas candidates.

The affable Yarborough, 53, came back from four previous election defeats to swamp another Democrat, the nationally known Rep. Martin Dies of Un-American Activities Committee fame, and the GOP hopeful, Thad Hutcheson, his only close opponents.

Republicans had high hopes of winning with Hutcheson and taking over Senate leadership. The Democrats have a 49-47 edge there now. A GOP victory would have created a 48-48 tie. Vice President Nixon would have had the tiebreaking vote.

President Eisenhower had endorsed Hutcheson and he waged a vigorous campaign, backed solidly by the late GOP machinery.

The vote was expected to run little more than half that of the general election last November when more than 1,800,000 Texans cast ballots.

YARBOROUGH increased his lead as late returns came in today. The latest count gave him 314,035 votes, or 37.06 per cent of the total. Dies had 257,627, or 30.40 per cent, and Hutcheson 203,800, or 24.05 per cent.

Voters concentrated on the big three, with three other candidates of state wide prominence getting insignificant ballot totals.

State Sen. Searcy Bracewell had 30,539, Austin Attorney James P. Hart, former University of Texas chancellor and former state Supreme Court Justice, 17,748, and state Agriculture Commissioner John C. White 9,184.

The other 13 candidates got only a handful of votes.

The victor is a strong-party backer. He refused to bolt to President Eisenhower in 1952 and 1956 when many Texas Democrats went over to the President's side.

Israel Chief Sees Peace as Doubtful

JERUSALEM (AP)—Prime Minister David Ben-Gurion told Parliament Tuesday night there is little chance of a Middle East peace as long as Egypt's President Nasser "and the present generation of Arab rulers are in power."

He said Nasser's prestige has been considerably lowered in the past few months, not only in the eyes of his Arab neighbors, but in the eyes of the Soviets.

But Ben-Gurion cautioned that there was a possibility of "renewed Arab attacks—and also, if Israel is victorious, this might be followed by another round. In that sense there never will be a final victory for Israel."

Big Pay Boosts Face Elimination

Ohio Legislature Wrestles Problem

COLUMBUS (AP)—Ohio's appointed officials who got whopping pay increases less than three months ago are about to lose them. Just how soon apparently depends on the Democratic minority in the Ohio Legislature.

The increases were approved last January within 24 hours after the Legislature started its session. If Senate Democrats hadn't decided to protest Tuesday, Cabinet officials would have lost their pay boosts as quickly as they were won.

Republican Gov. C. William O'Neill, in a complete policy reversal, asked the astonished Legislature Tuesday to revoke the pay raises he demanded last January. And he declared he felt "damn good" about reversing his decision.

Senate Republicans, after an afternoon caucus, advanced the Senate session today by 2½ hours to rush the pay-cut bill through and give the House a chance to pass it late today if it so desired.

But Senate Democrats, who have enough votes to block suspension of the Senate's normal rules of procedure, blocked consideration of the bill at an unusual morning session today.

Senate Majority Leader C. Stanley Mechem (R-Athens) said no attempt will be made to suspend the rules in view of the Democratic opposition, and said the Senate will vote on the bill Thursday in the normal course of events.

At least one Democratic vote will be required Thursday to pass the bill as an emergency measure. Emergency bills become law as soon as they are signed by the governor.

Each top state official except Highway Chief Charles M. Noble and the director of mental hygiene and correction, as yet unnamed, shares in the proposed cut.

Noble stays at $30,000 ($5,000 more than the governor is paid) and the unfiled post of mental hygiene director drops from $25,000 to $18,000 a year. Previously, the job paid $12,000 a year.

Asked about the possible political consequence by his on-again-off-again salary policy, O'Neill replied:

"You could debate the political consequences by the hour. But I always have believed that if you do what you believe to be right, that it always good politics. I feel damn good about the decision because I believe it is right."

All department directors involved in the pay slash, O'Neill declared, have agreed to remain in his Cabinet at the lower pay.

Democrats had a field day as O'Neill admitted his error on salaries and asked the Legislature to reverse its field.

And Bartunek said: "The complete reversal of Gov. O'Neill and his demands for exorbitant salaries for executive heads of government is a direct result of the efforts of the Democratic minority."

"Although we commend the majority for having the courage to reverse its stand, we will not

Two Fishermen Drown

Bodies Found in Rocky Fork Lake

The rough waters of Rocky Fork Lake, Highland County, yielded the bodies of two fishermen about midnight Tuesday, after a 50-man searching party had hunted them nearly three hours.

Apparently drowned when their boat capsized in the choppy waters were Sam McCullough, 46, a onetime Greenfield policeman, and Virgil Minturn, 49, who was employed with McCullough as a guard in the North American Aviation Co., Columbus.

Bodies of the two were found, face down in the water, less than half a mile west of Lucky Landing dock, from which the men had happily set out on a fishing trip around noon Tuesday. Their boat was found, capsized, about a half mile off shore.

They were discovered about 12:30 a. m. by Deputy Sheriff Norman Carson and Game Protector John Adams, aiding the search along with policemen and firemen from Greenfield and Hillsboro and volunteers from all over Highland County.

DAVE McAUSLIN, operator of the Lucky Landing dock, said he rented a boat to the men about noon Tuesday. They were in excellent spirits and told him they planned to spend the afternoon fishing, he said. Muskies, bass, crappies and bluegills have been caught in the lake.

First hint of trouble came about 8 p. m. when Mrs. McCullough went to the Greenfield Police Station and reported her husband had not come home. About the same time, Highland County Sheriff Walter Reffitt received a report from Minturn's brother in Columbus that Minturn had been expected about 5 p. m.

Sheriff Reffitt and Deputy Carson went to the lake then, found Minturn's car, and immediately spread a general alarm. A searching party was finally organized about 10 p. m. and auxiliary lights from the Greenfield and Hillsboro fire departments were brought to the scene.

SEARCHERS combed the lake-shore and borrowed boats covered the lake unceasingly until the two were found by Deputy Carson and Game Protector Adams.

High winds had made the lake choppy all day. Sheriff Reffitt said it was likely the boat had capsized about mid-afternoon.

Reports were that McCullough could not swim, and one theory had it that Minturn drowned trying to

Tornado Slashes at Dallas, Leaving 9 Dead, 400 Hurt

DALLAS (AP)—A huge tornado that spun out of an ominous, black rain cloud cut a deadly 21-mile path across Dallas Tuesday afternoon as thousands watched in fear and awe. At least nine persons were killed.

And as rescue workers probed the wreckage for others still reported missing the Weather Bureau warned that more tornadoes could be expected today.

Some 196 injured persons were treated at hospitals. Unofficial estimates placed the injured as high as 400.

No official estimate of damage had been made, but Assistant Police Chief Jess Curry said it would be more than $1½ million.

Unofficial estimates said 800 homes and business buildings were destroyed or damaged.

Tornadoes also plowed into southern Oklahoma and killed at least five persons. Another person was killed near Paris, Tex., as a series of tornadoes skipped around north Texas.

THE TORNADO lashed out of a black rainstorm. An estimated hundred thousand people watched as it swayed a leisurely, jerky course from South Oak, Cliff through west Dallas and north-west Dallas. For 40 horror-filled minutes the lashing funnel filled the dark sky above a frozen city.

Passengers and crew of a Braniff Airlines plane watched from the air as the plane circled after takeoff from Dallas' Love Field.

Traffic piled up into fantastic jams all over western Dallas.

"Oh, lawd, it roared down like a freight train and then was on us tearing our house down," Robert Thurman, 31, sobbed. Blood oozed from a wound in his head.

President Says Such Reports Without Basis

Chief also Holds Hope For Tax Cut, Pleads Slower Auto Travel

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower said today reports he will resign before the end of his second term and turn his duties over to Vice President Nixon are the worst rot he has heard since taking office.

The President also told his news conference that the prospects are good for future tax reductions. But he declined to forecast any cuts next year.

A reporter had told Eisenhower there have been reports and rumors lately that he might step out of the presidency, when world conditions permit, and have Nixon take over.

Eisenhower appeared to register some surprise. Then he said emphatically those reports are the worst rot he has heard since he has been in office.

Showing irritation, the President said he knows of no reason why any speculative writer should doubt his basic integrity.

He recalled that at the time he announced for a second term he reported that his doctors felt he was able to carry on, and that he himself had decided he was able to do so.

THE FIRST question put to Eisenhower by newsmen was a request for comment on his fast trip to Gettysburg last weekend.

A reporter told him the trip got a lot of attention because newsmen trying to keep up with his car were flagged down.

With a slow smile, Eisenhower replied that for a good many years he has used the back seat of his car to carry on conferences.

He said that on the trip last Friday he was engaged in a conference. He made the journey with Col. Walter R. Tkach, assistant White House physician.

Newsmen who accompanied Eisenhower last Friday reported his limousine hit 75 miles an hour at times. Nowhere along the 80 mile route does the speed limit permit more than 55 miles an hour.

Eisenhower then told newsmen he has issued orders that his limousine is never to exceed the speed limit at any place.

On other matters: Taxes and budget—Eisenhower said he certainly hopes there can be a tax cut before the end of his second term but he declined to speculate as to just when a reduction may be possible.

As for the administration's $71.8 billion budget for the fiscal year beginning July 1, Eisenhower said he sees no chance for what he called a substantial cut such as $2 billion.

BUT EFFORTS are being made constantly to find ways to achieve savings, he said, adding that the goal is to tighten up wherever possible without abandoning essential programs.

In the specific field of foreign aid, Eisenhower noted he said last week that some savings might be possible in the military aspect of that program, as well as in certain other areas.

But he said the Administration still is committed to its basic request for $4.4 billion in mutual security aid for the new fiscal year.

Chinese islands—Eisenhower said he never has given the Chinese Nationalists any assurance the United States would help defend the islands of Quemoy and Matsu if Red China attempted to take them.

This statement came when he was asked for comment on a new biography of Secretary of State Dulles. The author, John Robinson Beal, wrote that Eisenhower sent Nationalist China's president Chiang Kai-shek a secret personal letter "satisfying him the United States would help defend Quemoy and Matsu."

Eisenhower said forcefully he never has given assurances to anyone in foreign areas that go beyond the intent of U. S. law. In this case he was referring to a 1956 congressional resolution pledging the United States would defend Formosa and the Pescadores against any attack by the Chinese Reds.

New Bill Backed

COLUMBUS (AP)—Mrs. Lucille Burke, head of the Franklin County juvenile staff, Tuesday endorsed a bill in the Ohio Legislature making parents financially responsible when their children are delinquent.

Panic rose in the streets as traffic piled up.

"I've got to get out of this jam; it's hitting my house and my wife is home," a tearful old man begged and cried.

And he is not too surprised. "After all," he said, "only one man ever came back from the dead and that was our Lord."

Military Law Grips Chile as Rioting Grows

Students Taking Lead In Demonstrations Against Living Costs

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP)—New violence erupted in Santiago today in defiance of emergency military law clamped on the entire nation of Chile to stamp out anti-inflation rioting.

About 1,000 Chileans attacked police and army troops in the heart of this capital city, where Tuesday night rioting, punctuated by frequent army fire, left scores of dead and wounded.

The mobs, defying a government order to remain indoors, tried to storm the doors of the Pan American Bank and were driven off after heavy army gunfire. The rioters tried to overwhelm the soldiers, then fled as the soldiers opened fire.

The riots followed a week of turbulent demonstrations, mostly led by students, against Chile's runaway cost of living.

President Carlos Ibanez, in a nationwide, post-midnight broadcast, warned the population he stands for "energetic use of arms, whatever the consequences," to put down the violence.

A government decree, read over a nationwide radio hookup, announced a state of siege—a form of martial law. The government blamed the rioting on international Communism and lawless groups seeking to damage the economy of this nation, one of the most democratic in South America. It said the events of the last week were "the beginning of one phase of violence designed to destroy the country."

UNDERSCORING the government's intentions, a firing squad was reported to have executed four persons for looting shops. Gen. Horacio Gamboa, chief of the Santiago Garrison, declined to confirm this report, but said court-martial proceedings and executions for pillaging are permitted under the state of siege.

The capital was relatively quiet with the arrival of daylight, but all transport services were at a standstill and airlines halted all services here.

Authorities said only three persons were killed Tuesday night in Santiago, but hospital informants said as many as 40 might have been killed and that 128 were wounded.

Army machine gunners, tanks and armored cars fired repeatedly on the thousands of rioters Tuesday night in the heart of the capital. The government said the rioters, who attacked and stoned government buildings, were being used by extremist elements to damage the government by violence and vandalism.

Demonstrations erupted Tuesday night in other cities, including Valparaiso, Concepcion and San Antonio. Police fired into the air and used tear gas to break up the crowds.

Silver Dollars For Anniversary

Washington, D. C., cash registers will take on a Las Vegas look Friday evening, as employees of the Brandenburg Motor Co., Clinton Ave., start spending their paychecks.

Seems that Ray Brandenburg, operator of the company, is paying his entire $1,700 payroll in silver dollars this week.

The cartwheels will be issued in the regular pay envelopes to all of the close to 20 employees at the shop. Brandenburg had them ordered especially through the First National Bank.

It won't be a regular thing, though — Brandenburg is doing it in honor of his 25th anniversary in the auto business, being celebrated this week.

The first pure nickel coin was a 20-cent piece issued by Switzerland in 1881.

Federal Spending Ceiling Is Urged

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Byrd (D-Va.) proposed today that Congress put a ceiling on all presidential spending.

Byrd, chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, drafted a single-package appropriations bill under which he said Congress could regain control of spending. Byrd contends Congress has lost that control by authorizing expenditures of funds for years ahead, as well as currently.

He proposed to limit spending from both past and current appropriations to a figure fixed by Congress each year.

'Misty Sentiment' Plaguing Churches

COLUMBUS (AP)—A good part of modern day Christianity must be rinsed of "misty sentiment," says the president of the United Lutheran Church.

Dr. Fry's remarks were made in a speech during a three-day conference of church leaders and the denomination's council of synodical presidents here.

Youth Is Held To Grand Jury

Two Boys To Appear In Court Thursday

Roy A. Penwell, 19, of 1119 N. North St., charged with breaking and entering, was bound over to the grand jury under $5,000 bond Wednesday morning by Municipal Court Judge Max G. Dice.

Charged with breaking and entering the Sinclair Service Station, 1537 N. North St., Penwell was implicated last week by Deputy Sheriff Donald Thompson on during a clamp-down on youthful criminals in this area.

He was already in jail when Thompson filed the breaking and entering charge against him, serving time for violation of probation. He still has about 15 days of a 30-day sentence to serve. The violation of probation charge grew out of a charge of contributing to the delinquency of a minor, filed against him last November.

MEANWHILE Juvenile Court Judge Robert L. Brubaker said that a 17-year-old county boy, accused of stealing a pistol from the Central Ohio Gun and Indian Relic Club gun show March 23, had been committed to Boy's Industrial School, Lancaster, but the sentence had been suspended.

The boy was put on probation to his father, Judge Brubaker said. He was also fined $25 and costs.

Two boys accused of breaking into McCoy's Market, N. North St., are to appear in Juvenile Court Thursday, Judge Brubaker said. Another, accused of shoplifting a radio from Jean's Appliance Co., E. Court St., is due to appear Saturday, he added.

Coroner Probing Death of Man in Freezer of Truck

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Franklin County coroner's office is investigating the death of a 24-year-old ice cream salesman found dead Tuesday in the freezer compartment of his truck.

The salesman, Bradley Kincaid McDonald, apparently died of freezing, Coroner Robert A. Evans said. He added that an autopsy will be performed.

McDonald, who married Miss Shirley Corley of Akron March 16, spent about nine hours in the freezer compartment, fire department emergency squadmen said. They said the temperature inside was 20 degrees below zero.

McDonald's body was discovered by Harry Wolman, who operates a pharmacy on McDonald's delivery route. Wolman opened the freezer compartment door after realizing that McDonald was late with a delivery.

The freezer door was unlocked, the fire department said, and inside was an emergency release to prevent a person from being trapped. It was not known immediately why McDonald could not get out.

Police Chief Freed In Traffic Death

CLEVELAND (AP)—Common Pleas Judge Daniel H. Wasserman Tuesday acquitted Police Chief Charles Vajner of suburban Orange of a charge of traffic manslaughter in the death of 11-year-old Alex Kozma.

Strangers Aid 3 Ohio Kids On Bus Trip

WINSTON-SALEM, N. C. (AP)—Three Ohio youngsters ran into a little trouble on their way to Goldsboro, N. C., but thanks to a couple of kind-hearted bus drivers and some generous strangers, things turned out all right.

Ben Easton, 10, his brother, Ronnie, 9, and his 4-year-old sister, Pam, had their tickets and about $2 in spending money when their mother, Mrs. Helene Faircloth, put them on a bus at Findlay, Ohio, Monday night. They were on their way to visit their grandmother, Mrs. Bessie Roberts.

When their bus stopped at Charleston, W. Va., however, Ben discovered his wallet, containing the tickets and money, was gone.

They told Bill Cramer, the bus driver. Cramer told some of the passengers, and $3 was raised. Pete McBride, Cramer's relief driver, on learning of the trio's predicament, raised another $6.

Tuesday afternoon, the youngsters boarded the bus for the last leg of the trip to Goldsboro. But this time their new bus driver, J. B. Gallman, took charge of them and their traveling money.

Junior Fair Budget Okayed

$3490.75 Set Aside For Summer Event

A budget of $3,490.75 for the Junior Fair division of the annual Fayette County Fair next July today has the approval of the Fair Board.

It was given the official OK, by the board at its regular monthly meeting after it was presented by County Agent W. W. Montgomery along with a word-picture of the outlook for this phase of the extravaganza.

This year's budget is only $5.25 bigger than last year's budget of $3,485.50. Last year, however, only $3,228.12 was actually spent.

Money budgeted from some of the departments this year is the same as last. Other departments were allotted more and some less, depending largely on how they came out last year and the outlook for the coming Fair. The increases amounted to $75.25 and the decreases $70.

The increases were: 4-H club Congress delegates from $114 to $133; Juvenile Grange booth from $33.75 to $40; appreciation dinner $275 to $300; ribbons and pins $205 to $225; pictures and printing $40 to $45.

The budget cuts were: Future Farmers booth from $30 to $15; Future Homemakers booth $45 to $15; judges fees $225 to $200.

NO CHANGES were made in the others: 4-H and FFA premiums $2,400; 4-H conservation camp award $14; Camp Fire Girls and Blue Birds $35; Boy Scouts $35; Girl Scouts booth $33.75.

Montgomery told the Fair Board the outlook for the Junior Fair this year is "very good." He said indications are that there will be as many, and probably more, exhibits.

Increases are certain, he said, in the saddle horse club show and in the steer show.

The board discussed proposed acquisition of the Fair ground, which has been appraised at $108,250 on court order, but there was nothing definite beyond the talking. The question been discussed at nearly every meeting of the board for several years.

The world's principal cork producer is Portugal.

Anti-Bingo Moves Made In 4 Counties

COLUMBUS (AP)—Authorities ordered bingo games stopped in Portage and Medina counties Tuesday and similar action is expected today in Lorain and Ashtabula counties.

The crackdown apparently has been ordered by Gov. C. William O'Neill.

In Medina County, Sheriff Steve Helli and Prosecutor H. Dennis Dannelly told the Wadsworth VFW Club not to hold its scheduled bingo game Tuesday night. The game had been operating for 11 years, recently on three nights a week.

Helli and Dannelly were almost apologetic in ordering the game stopped. They pointed out they had few if any complaints, and that the VFW had given about half proceeds to charities.

In Portage County, Prosecutor Robert E. Cook and Sheriff Ross Dustman said bingo would no longer be tolerated. Regular games have been operating at the American Legion in Ravenna and Kent, the VFW in Ravenna, St. Joseph's Roman Catholic Church in Mantua, the Portage County Labor Temple in Kent, and at Windham and Rootstown.

Both Mayor John C. Jaworski of Lorain and Joseph P. Mallone of Geneva, Ashtabula County, said they expected instructions from Columbus to stop "non-profit" bingo which has been permitted in those cities.

Wisconsin Votes For 'Fast' Time

MILWAUKEE (AP)—After four decades of dispute over whether the majority of Wisconsin residents really wanted daylight saving time, voters spoke out in a referendum Tuesday and the state will advance its clocks one hour April 28.

In 3,135 of 3,355 precincts, 537,363 favored the statute change to authorize daylight time. The vote against was 446,758.

As a result of the balloting, Wisconsin joins 24 other states that turn their clocks ahead during the summer period.

New Rotarians Receive Charge

Club's Principles Outlined Monday

The Washington Rotary Club set aside Tuesday's luncheon program at the Country Club for the induction of nine members, recently received into the organization here, in the principles of Rotary.

Giving the charge to the new Rotarians was Attorney Ray Maddox, an assignment which he has undertaken for a number of past years.

THE NINE new members for whom this special ceremony was planned at this time were John Ellcessor, the Rev. W. Neil Hand, Paul Arthur, Albert C. Heer, Robert S. Rochester, Charles Pensyl, William Stoughton, Richard White and Clarence W. Maddox. All were present except Arthur and Stoughton.

Maddox was presented by the day's program chairman, Dr. I. L. Pumpfrey. Maddox briefly sketched the custom followed by the club in submitting the charge to new members. He explained what their welcome in becoming affiliated with Rotary meant, called attention to the new group's joining hands with nearly half a million other men of all lines of business and professions in seeking to bring about among men better international understanding and good will.

HE REFERRED to the "lofty purposes" of the organization and to the importance of recognizing the need for following the Rotary motto "Service above Self" as well as understanding the Rotary philosophy which, he declared, for so many years has been an inspiration to men of all groups.

Following the charge, Chairman Pumpfrey called on all the new members present for a brief response.

Donald Wood introduced the two student guests, William Dresbaugh and Paul Cox. The latter responded briefly in thanking the club for the privileges accorded senior high school boys.

Birthday greetings were sung for Rev. L. J. Poe who made the customary contribution to the Rotary youth fund.

PRESIDENT ROBERT LISK announced that there would be no regular meeting of the club next Tuesday since the Rotary Ann dinner meeting and program on Thursday, April 11, will be considered a regular meeting for all Rotarians.

Rotarian guests of the club at this meeting were Roy Vandergriff, Dr. Walter Felson and John Duncan of Greenfield; Gene Kidwell, Neil Ardrey and Paul Dwyer of London. Other guests were Robert Cox, of Chillicothe, with Don Wood, and Harold Boecher of Chillicothe, with Dr. B. V. Scott, of Chillicothe, a visiting Rotarian.

Tax Fraud Case Being Delayed

Judge Druffel was reported suffering from a severe cold and his physician ordered him home.

Traffic Accidents in County Take Sizeable Drop in 1956

Going against the pattern of almost every other county in the state, Fayette County's 1956 traffic accident figures took a surprising drop over 1955, the State Highway Safety Department revealed.

The number of accidents, the number of injuries and the number of traffic deaths all went down here last year—a record almost unequalled in Ohio.

Of other counties in this area, only Clinton County could say the same. And Fayette County's drop was sharper even than its.

Besides Clinton County, all other counties in this area saw their accident figures rise. Ross, Pickaway, Highland, Greene and Madison Counties all had more accidents, more injuries and more deaths during the year.

PROPERTY damage here was $30,000 less in 1956 than in 1955, the state report revealed. Damage figure last year was only $135,811 as compared with $165,480 the year before.

Total number of accidents here during 1956 was 414, as contrasted to 437 for 1955 and 449 for 1954. Of last year's accidents, seven were fatal, and 133 involved injuries. Property damage only was recorded in the other 274.

Eight persons died in accidents here during 1956, but nine lives were lost during 1955 and 12 during 1954. No pedestrians were killed during 1956.

Number of injuries was down from 285 to 213.

WHILE FAYETTE County was chopping down figures, almost every other county was watching them grow. Injuries, statewide, were up no less than 11 per cent, with Cuyahoga (Cleveland), Franklin (Columbus), Hamilton (Cincinnati) and Summit (Akron) counties recording 5,000 or more injuries each. Average number of injuries per day ran to more than 200.

Of all pedestrians who died, children under 10 and "senior citizens" over 65 constituted 61 per cent, it was reported. Only six per cent of accident drivers were residents of other states.

Director Gordon Jeffery of the State Department of Highway Safety said: "There is no solace in these traffic figures, if we do not show any progress in curbing this reckless waste of human souls and energies and economic resources. We must not sacrifice any man, woman or child or their usefulness, for their families, for the future of our state."

4-H club members during the next week, as preparations for the County Fair in July begin to get under way.

An officers' and advisors' conference, to get the new club leaders familiarized with their jobs, will be held at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday in the Grace Methodist Church.

And a Good Grooming Clinic, to teach all the 4-H club members in Fayette County how to look their best, will be held at 8 p. m. next Wednesday at the same place.

Value of the "People-to-People" Program

It is to be wondered how many of the people of Fayette County have given any serious thought to the "People-to-People Program For International Friendship" which got under way in this country some months ago.

This program is working in some places. Even schools have taken it up in a few Ohio cities by arranging for "pen-pal" letters to be exchanged between school students of this and foreign lands.

Some months ago President Eisenhower called a group of leading American citizens to a special White House conference and out of that meeting came the idea for this type of helping the movement toward international understanding.

For some length of time the Rotary Club in this city, joining with other Rotary Clubs over the nation, has been active in a similar project toward aiding a general movement for better "international understanding" by frequent exchange of letters and magazines.

This is something that can have a growing effect among common people rather than risking everything on political diplomacy.

The whole program centers about the aim to construct a massive line of communication between Americans and the citizens of other lands.

There is a place in this program for everyone. An individual, for instance, may regularly write letters to friends and relatives abroad, share American books and magazines with eager readers overseas, or invite to his home one of the many foreign visitors who come to this country.

A civic leader may help his community undertake a town affiliation with some sister-city abroad, as has Hagerstown, Maryland, with Wesel, Germany.

A business firm with foreign branches may devote part of its overseas advertising to build better understanding of America, as has one of our American companies. The possibilities are almost limitless — and some of them are novel and striking.

As an example, the Gazette, of Ambler, Pennsylvania, on the 900th anniversary of Coburg, Germany, issued a "Freedom Edition" in two languages and distributed copies in both its own town and the German city.

The government is prepared to give assistance in this undertaking. In the President's words, "if our American ideology is eventually to win out in the great struggle being waged between opposing ways of life, it must have the active support of thousands of independent private groups and institutions and millions of individual Americans acting through person-to-person communication in foreign lands."

The Stock Raider--a New Menace

By George Sokolsky

Whoever owns the shares of a company or enough of them to constitute control, can select the management of the enterprise.

There may be a century or more of tradition behind those who imagined themselves in control, but they or their ancestors made the choice of borrowing from the public by selling the shares of the company to the general public, and when they took that step they limited their rights in their own business.

Therefore from the standpoint of strict legality, the founder of a business has no ground for complaint if those whose only participation in a business was to buy some shares, unite to deprive him of his pride and joy whenever they can.

The tax laws have played a destructive role in the fast vanishing family-owned enterprises. It is dangerous to the heirs of an owner of a family business for the senior to hold onto his entire ownership, as he might leave his widow and children without sufficient cash to meet the inheritance tax on his death.

Often a man sells off the whole or a part of his business for tax purposes. This is a direct application of the Marxian method of destroying capitalism as developed over the years in American tax laws. Some men solve this problem by leaving their businesses to a foundation which is more a legalistic than a moral foundation because ultimately most foundations fall into the hands of professionals who expend their fortunes on other purposes than might have been desired or even designated.

So we have the picture of a man laboring through the best years of his life to erect a productive business enterprise with his own money, ingenuity and initiative, facing a proxy fight during which newcomers, aliens or very recent Americans, ruthlessly seek to take over his enterprise and often succeed by methods rarely employed in this country since the days of the robber barons, Jay Gould and Jim Fisk.

This situation has been dramatized by the activities of Leopold Silberstein to take over Fairbanks-Morse, an operation which involves all the gambits of the take-over. However, the Silberstein enterprise is only one and not really the most significant, although Silberstein and some of his associates and hired hands are as dramatic as Max Reinhardt and should really be in the theater.

Silberstein focused attention upon himself and his activities by hiring a galaxy of press agents and fixers who attracted as much attention to themselves as to their principal.

The number of companies taken over by proxy fights or by attrition leading to virtual abandonment is large and presents a very ugly picture. Thus far, no recent raider has won public approval because none of them have displayed anything more attractive than the ability to borrow money.

Every time management these days notes an excessive activity of its stock in the market, it wonders who is raiding the stock, who is rigging the market, who is down-grading management. It consumes energy, time and manpower and it is distracting and wasteful.

Fear of raiding can be used by competitors as a method for lessening business effectiveness. It used to be that management rarely worried about the daily movement of its stock in the market, but the presence of raiders creates an atmosphere of fear and uncertainty. Who will be struck down next?

It is pretty well known that certain investment underwriters in Wall Street, favorably known for their stability, have moved into the field of stock market manipulation with a view to raiding and taking over well-established companies that are attending to their own business.

There Are 3 Types Of Nearsightedness

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN

While we generally say a person is nearsighted and let it go at that, there actually are three broad varieties of myopia, or nearsightedness.

The ordinary, or most frequent type, attacks eyes that are otherwise normal. Generally, this type of visual difficulty occurs in children between the ages of eight and 16 who are very fond of reading. We suspect that heredity has something to do with it.

Usually stabilizes

Although it might become worse as the child grows in size, it usually becomes fairly stabilized by the time adulthood is reached.

A more dangerous type of near-sightedness is termed progressive myopia. Almost always this type strikes a sickly child, whether he likes to read or not. Its advance is rapid and is accompanied by a destructive process which might terminate in blindness. Fortunately, few persons suffer from it.

companied by a destructive process which might terminate in blindness. Fortunately, few persons suffer from it.

Middle Age

The third type begins with middle age. While many victims seem to be in perfect health, it usually attacks those with poor general health or unhealthy eyes. Sometimes, we believe, it results from certain blood disorders.

Nearsightedness occurs in some persons because their eyeballs are too long from front to back. In such cases the light rays from objects any distance away come to a focus in front of the retina. This results in blurred images.

Focusing Difficulties

Other victims have similar focusing difficulties because the lenses of their eyes bend the light rays too sharply.

No matter what the cause of the trouble, all victims of myopia require glasses which will bend the light rays so that they focus on the retina and produce clear, sharp images. Let me emphasize that only a vision specialist should prescribe glasses. If you need glasses, you need the advice of an expert to obtain the best vision possible.

U. S. Foreign Aid Program Seen as Big Jig-Saw Puzzle

Editor's Note: The International Cooperation Administration, operator of America's foreign aid program, is beset with one headache after another. The reasons are explained in this, the third in a series of articles.

By RELMAN MORIN

WASHINGTON (AP) — Suppose you are the director of the agency that operates the multi-billion dollar American foreign aid program.

You are dealing with more than 60 nations and territories.

Among these governments are Communists, Socialists, dictators, constitutional monarchies.

In foreign policy, some usually stand with the United States. Others are "neutralist." Still others stand closer to Russia.

Some are brand new, with delicate national sensibilities. Their economies, still embryonic, are susceptible to inflation and limited in the size and type of projects they can usefully absorb.

Some are strategically located, smack up against the Iron Curtain. Others are oceans away.

This one possesses vital ores and minerals that the United States lacks and must import — chrome, graphite, nickel, tin, manganese, mercury, mica, tungsten, cobalt. That one possesses little or nothing of apparent value to the non-Communist world as of today.

It's a gigantic jig-saw. No two problems are exactly alike.

As each project comes up, there will be reasons for and against approving it.

Take some individual cases. Afghanistan — Population 12 million, remotely situated, adjoins Russia, tends to vote "neutralist" in the United Nations.

Project — To build airfields and train the air force. Cost, 14½ million in loans and grants.

The ICA approved for several reasons, but primarily to keep Russia from doing the job with its technicians and equipment. What would you have decided?

Here's another. Indonesia — Population 89 million, gained independence after World War II, rich in resources, "neutralist" in foreign policy.

Project — A survey of economic development potentialities to be made by a private American engineering firm. Cost, $3,680,000.

But — Indonesia insists that the engineers' finding be not made known to the ICA. Notwithstanding, the project was considered "in the best interests of both nations" and was approved.

and disturbances of the eyes or ears.

It would be advisable for you to have a thorough physical examination by a physician to determine its cause.

Each day brings a different kind of headache.

There's that fertilizer plant for Korea. Cost originally estimated at 21½ million, later upped by 9 million. Engineers first recommend one process, then switch to another. Which is more efficient? The plant is under construction while all these angles are still being re-surveyed.

Sometimes a project is mapped out to be completed by American contractors with American money. The work starts. Suddenly, at the insistence of their government, local contractors are cut in.

In a case involving electrical construction, the local engineers made dangerous changes in the blueprints. "I was literally afraid for the safety of my men," said the American contractor.

Result — delays, friction, compromise, added costs.

But the ICA's problems are by no means confined to its overseas offices. Some dwell in Washington. For instance —

Congress approves foreign aid funds on a yearly basis. This works against long-range planning, hampers flexibility.

ICA's director today is a tough-minded Ohio lawyer, John B. Hollister. He was a law partner of the late Sen. Robert A. Taft, a former judge, congressman, and State Department consultant. He is 66 years old.

He has a staff of 8,620, of whom 5,161 are Americans. The total monthly payroll is around $3,780,000.

Hollister says he thinks the foreign aid program is "adequate" now. He is realistic about the reasons for it, says, "The greatest part of all this money has been and is being spent because we are threatened."

Lack of flexibility, he says, is one of ICA's biggest problems. "You can't tell a year ahead of time what you may have to do in a given region but you have to formulate your plans anyway."

As to the year-by-year pattern of congressional appropriations he said:

"We try not to do things in a slipshod way. On the other hand, Congress keeps the pressure on you to obligate money within a given period. It obviously isn't the best way."

Does he personally favor the program? "I'm a Mid Western lawyer who left a good practice to come down here. Why should I do that if I didn't believe in what I'm doing?"

Tomorrow: Could American private enterprise do the job better?

Value of the "People-to-People" Program

It is to be wondered how many of the people of Fayette County have given any serious thought to the "People-to-People Program For International Friendship" which got under way in this country some months ago.

This program is working in some places. Even schools have taken it up in a few Ohio cities by arranging for "pen-pal" letters to be exchanged between school students of this and foreign lands.

Some months ago President Eisenhower called a group of leading American citizens to a special White House conference and out of that meeting came the idea for this type of helping the movement toward international understanding.

For some length of time the Rotary Club in this city, joining with other Rotary Clubs over the nation, has been active in a similar project toward aiding a general movement for better "international understanding" by frequent exchange of letters and magazines.

This is something that can have a growing effect among common people rather than risking everything on political diplomacy.

The whole program centers about the aim to construct a massive line of communication between Americans and the citizens of other lands.

There is a place in this program for everyone. An individual, for instance, may regularly write letters to friends and relatives abroad, share American books and magazines with eager readers overseas, or invite to his home one of the many foreign visitors who come to this country.

A civic leader may help his community undertake a town affiliation with some sister city abroad, as has Hagerstown, Maryland, with Wesel, Germany.

A business firm with foreign branches may devote part of its overseas advertising to build better understanding of America, as has one of our American companies. The possibilities are almost limitless — and some of them are novel and striking.

As an example, the Gazette, of Amble, Pennsylvania, on the 900th anniversary of Coburg, Germany, issued a "Freedom Edition" in two languages and distributed copies in both its own town and the German city.

The government is prepared to give assistance in this undertaking. In the President's words, "if our American ideology is eventually to win out in the great struggle being waged between opposing ways of life, it must have the active support of thousands of independent private groups and institutions and millions of individual Americans acting through person-to-person communication in foreign lands."

Lioness Club Meeting Held at Country Club

The highlight of the meeting when the Lioness Club met at the Country Club last evening was their annual election of officers. The nominating committee, Mrs. Charles Reinke, chairman; Mrs. Dustin Gorton, and Mrs. Charles Griffiths presented the slate of candidates and the results of the election were as follows: Mrs. Richard Junk, president; Mrs. Ed Vollette, vice president; Mrs. Robert Boyd, secretary; Mrs. Jerry Grundies, treasurer; Mrs. John Trace, tailtwister; Mrs. Charles Pfersick, lioness tamer; Mrs. Byers Shaw and Mrs. Ralph Bray, directors for two years.

Nation's Banks Now Reporting Peak Earnings

First Quarter Profits
Reflect Prosperity,
Tight Money Policy

By SAM DAWSON
NEW YORK (AP)—Many of the nation's banks today are reporting record earnings—byproduct of the general prosperity and the tight money policy.

In New York City some of the country's biggest banks report first quarter net operating profits anywhere from 10 to 18 per cent above those made in the first three months of 1956.

Most of the banks reporting on their first quarter operations show that their customers, business firms and individuals, are borrowing more today than at this time last year—although not as much as at the end of last year.

And the customer are paying higher interest on their loans.

While business loans dropped in the first quarter, as they usually do, their total is still at a post-war high for this season of the year. But business borrowing is now back to a seasonal pattern, rather than rising steeply as it did through much of 1956.

Commercial and industrial loans at New York banks is now about 1 1/4 billion dollars more than at this time last year.

Since the banks raised their prime interest rate—what banks charge the biggest customers with the best credit standing—to 4 per cent last August, the combination of higher interest and greater loan volume has been very pleasant for the banks.

From the prime rate banks scale the rates upward for their other customers.

Rates went up last summer because of the tight money situation which has abated only slightly since. Demand for loans was advancing much faster than the supply of lendable funds, so that interest rates in general were rising.

But the seasonal easing in the demand for loans has been quite marked in the first three months of this year. The money market has been easier and occasionally talk of a drop in interest rates later on is heard.

Much of the demand for credit last year came from businessmen who were building up inventories. Of late they have turned cautious and many have been cutting back on inventories rather than building them up.

Business demand for funds last year was also swelled by the expansion drive which brought the acquiring of new plants and equipment to a record high. Such spending is still at the peak, but some observers look for that demand to fall off as 1957 progresses.

With business activity generally leveling off, some bankers feel that their own business may be near or at its peak of profitability. Few, however, look for any major change in their position in the next few months.

State's Prison Population Tops Capacity of Jails

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio's prison population, now at an all-time high, is outdistancing the state's prison capacity, says a penal expert.

As a result, he said, the prison housing situation in the state is "critical."

M. C. Koblenz, chief of the Division of Correction, Ohio Department of Mental Hygiene and Correction, said Ohio's five penal institutions had 11,024 inmates on March 27, an all-time high.

Within two years, he said, it will probably reach 12,000.

A proposed 1,500-inmate prison at Lebanon is scheduled for completion in 1959, Koblenz said, "but by that time we may need another institution to keep pace with the influx of new offenders."

Work of conditioning a much needed addition to St. Colman's Cemetery, on Elm St., immediately north of the Pennsylvania Railroad, is now underway.

Sometime ago it was discovered that St. Colman's held title to a 40-strip of land on the North Side of the cemetery, which had been farmed over for many years.

The fact that the Church owned the tract apparently had been forgotten until it was found that title to the additional ground was vested in St. Colman's Church, it was announced.

A new fence has been erected and a bulldozer is now at work leveling up the tract, which later probably will be filled with earth to a depth of three to five feet, to make it nearly level with the remainder of the cemetery.

As burial space in the cemetery is becoming more and more scarce, the additional ground will permit expansion of the cemetery and meet burial requirements for many years.

An old plat, issued in 1913, shows that the land north of the cemetery had been laid off in lots, with "Church St." extending south to a point a short distance north of the cemetery, and "Plum St." extending east from a point south of John St., and an extension of Broadway extending east to "Church St."

However the tract was never developed, and has been farmed for many years. Last year a crop of corn was grown on the area.

OLD LANDMARK GONE

Another old landmark at the edge of the city has been torn down.

It was a cottage which stood on an eminence 100 yards east of Elm St., about opposite the eastern end of Broadway on the former D. T. McLean property.

The old cottage was occupied until a year or so ago. Some 45 years ago it was the scene of a small riot during a dance at the place one night, a man named Landrum was shot. Policeman Noah Bell, had his scalp laid open entirely across his head when one of the fighters struck him with a piece of a board, then fled before the stunned officer could shoot him.

I had heard of the trouble, and in company with one Harry Wells, foreman of the mechanical department of the Fayette County Record, was within two blocks of the place when Policeman Charles Jackson shot Landrum as the latter was attempting to hit him with some object.

That broke up the party, and not knowing what we might get into, Wells and I returned to police headquarters.

I then went to Dr. L. L. Brock's office where Policeman Bell had been taken, and helped while the five-inch cut through Bell's scalp was sewed up.

Then Dr. Brock and I went to the Landrum home to locate the wounded man.

When we reached the scene the house was abandoned. A kerosene lamp on a table in the center of the living room was the only light about the place.

We had been told by a man hurrying from the vicinity that the wounded man was in the cornfield surrounding the house.

By the aid of a flashlight we started searching, and finally found him lying against a corn shock.

Dr. Brock got on one side and I on the other, and we half carried and half dragged the man 250 feet to the house, where it was found he had been shot under the left arm.

The bullet passed through his left lung, barely missing his heart and lodged in his right lung. He went through a siege of pneumonia, but recovered. He died years ago.

The name of the man who struck Bell was never learned.

30 YEARS AGO

Curtis S. Miller became secretary of the Chamber of Commerce.

Frank H. Blessing purchased the building at North corner Fayette and Market Sts., vacated by Talbott Motor Co.

Holdren Auto Sales Co., Good Hope, was robbed of $500 worth of tires and tubes.

Washington Water Co. sued the city to collect $4,825 back fire hydrant rental for six months.

YMCA funds to operate institution now $9,500, or far above amount sought.

One hundred fifty fathers and sons banqueted in the Presbyterian Church at Jeffersonville.

Fear was expressed that Dr. V. P. Smith, former local veterinarian, perished when his apartments were consumed by fire at Golden Gate, Fla.

John McDonald, veteran grain dealer here died at age of 66 years.

Two men were fined $500 each in Probate Court for bootlegging. City School Superintendent Claude C. Brunner was elected president of Rotary Club, and J. L. Cadwallader, vice president.

Thirty grocers and meat market operators in city agreed to remain closed on Sunday.

The YWCA bought Mrs. Jane Davi's home on Hinde St. for a club house.

GI Interest Hike Shunned by Panel

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House Veterans Affairs Committee Tuesday voted 11-6 against an Eisenhower administration request to raise GI home loan interest rates from 4 1/2 to 5 per cent.

Chairman Teague (D-Tex.) announced this "closed" the issue so far as he is concerned for this session and that he planned no further hearings on the matter.

Rep. Ayres (R-Ohio), sponsored the measure to allow the interest hike on loans guaranteed by the Veterans Administration.

When we reached the scene the house was abandoned. A kerosene lamp on a table in the center of the living room was the only light about the place.

We had been told by a man hurrying from the vicinity that the wounded man was in the cornfield surrounding the house.

By the aid of a flashlight we started searching, and finally found him lying against a corn shock.

Dr. Brock got on one side and I on the other, and we half carried and half dragged the man 250 feet to the house, where it was found he had been shot under the left arm.

The bullet passed through his left lung, barely missing his heart and lodged in his right lung. He went through a siege of pneumonia, but recovered. He died years ago.

The name of the man who struck Bell was never learned.

YMCA funds to operate institution now $9,500, or far above amount sought.

One hundred fifty fathers and sons banqueted in the Presbyterian Church at Jeffersonville.

Fear was expressed that Dr. V. P. Smith, former local veterinarian, perished when his apartments were consumed by fire at Golden Gate, Fla.

John McDonald, veteran grain dealer here died at age of 66 years.

Two men were fined $500 each in Probate Court for bootlegging.

City School Superintendent Claude C. Brunner was elected president of Rotary Club, and J. L. Cadwallader, vice president.

GI Interest Hike Shunned by Panel

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House Veterans Affairs Committee Tuesday voted 11-6 against an Eisenhower administration request to raise GI home loan interest rates from 4 1/2 to 5 per cent.

Chairman Teague (D-Tex.) announced this "closed" the issue so far as he is concerned for this session and that he planned no further hearings on the matter.

Rep. Ayres (R-Ohio), sponsored the measure to allow the interest hike on loans guaranteed by the Veterans Administration.

Cancer Crusade Is Next Week

Fund-Raising Plan All Set in Fayette County

This is the month when cancer crusaders from coast to coast make a concerted effort to focus attention on the year-around war against the disease that will claim the lives of an estimated 250,000 Americans this year.

The unceasing fight against cancer is carried on by American Cancer Society, Inc., and its Fayette County Unit along three fronts: (1) research for preventatives and cures, (2) education which will lead to early detection and treatment and (3) service for victims of the malady.

This three-pronged attack takes money and it is to raise funds that April has been designated as Cancer Month and next week as Cancer Control Week in Fayette County.

But the campaign in Fayette County serves a broader purpose—before the week ends, crusaders hope to stop at every home in Washington C. H., Fayette County, not only to give everyone an opportunity to contribute to the war on cancer, but also an opportunity to give information on what cancer is, how it can be detected and how it can be treated.

In a nutshell, the Crusade gives information as well as receive money to carry on the program of research, education and service.

HERE IN Fayette County, much of this campaign will be concentrated into one day—Cancer Sunday, next Sunday. On this day, scores of workers will go from house to house accepting contributions and leaving educational pamphlets.

Plans for the Crusade—and Cancer Sunday—have been completed. Mrs. Howard S. Harper, president of the Fayette County unit, and Mrs. Elmer Reed, the executive-secretary, said.

Harold Hazard, in charge of the publicity, said all the materials for distribution to the homes are ready and that City Manager James R. Parkinson has prepared a proclamation designating next week

as "Cancer Control Week and next Sunday as Cancer Sunday."

THE PROCLAMATION, which gives highlights of the need for cancer control measures, follows:

"I, J. F. Parkinson, city manager of Washington C. H., proclaim: 'Cancer is one of the most critical public health problems of our times. Some 250,000 Americans, many of them in our own state, will die of cancer in 1957, if the present rates continue. Moreover, at the present rate, one in every four Americans now living will someday be stricken by that disease.'

"But in the last decade there has been marked progress in the diagnosis and treatment of cancer. Although one cancer patient in four is now saved, two out of four patients could be cured if they were treated early enough.

"The American Cancer Society plays a leading role in the national fight against cancer. Through its programs of public and professional education, the society spreads the life-saving message of early detection and prompt treatment. Its program of service does much to help the home cancer patient. By its support of more than 1,000 top-flight scientists in nationally coordinated program of research, the American Cancer Society gives urgency to the search for cause and cure of the dreaded disease.

"As a voluntary organization, it depends entirely upon your public contributions, obtained through its annual fund-raising drive, which takes place the week of April 7 to 12. As the city manager of Washington C. H., I do hereby proclaim said week be observed as Cancer Control Week and April 7 as CANCER SUNDAY.

"Therefore, I urge generous financial support to the Fayette County Cancer Society's Campaign, so that it may broaden its three-fold program of research, education and service.

"Fight Cancer with a Check-up and a Check. Help to achieve the 1957 goal of $5,000."

DIMENSION KNITS—Unusual new patterns and colorings give depth and richness to these dimensional cotton knits. Dress on left has slim midly lines, lined skirt, two-color jacquard design. Right, blouson dress with elasticized waist displays monotone pattern formed by raised geometrics.

Junior Fashions Show Even More Imagination

Junior fashions, always adventuresome and imaginative, are especially so this spring, with a wonderful variety of dresses, ensembles and separates in a wide range of colors. Silks, blends, cottons, prints and navy crepes are favorites.

Both full and slim silhouettes are popular, with juniors definitely endorsing the new softened sheath.

Treatments range from permanently knife-pleated skirts and controlled gored fullness to the slim, slow-fitting silhouette and pegged skirt.

Modified princess styles, semi-fitted overblouse dresses, blouson types and new-piece dresses with a two-piece look are other junior choices.

REPLACING the Empire silhouette is the new raised waistline which is not more than one and a half to three inches above the normal waistline. Its variations include pleated cummerbunds, set-in folds and bands, bows and tabs.

Capes are especially popular in cocoon shapes and hipbone or waist lengths, with the emphasis on narrow rather than voluminous types. Many dresses have detachable capeslets.

Flannel, often in pearl gray, is the favored fabric for suits.

FOR BREAKFAST—For lovely spring mornings, full-skirted, wrap-around breakfast coat contrasts two colors in the same print.

Men's Spring Shoes Shine -- But Softly!

Men's shoes this spring are going to shine—but with a soft glow that comes from the leather itself rather than from polish applied to it. The gleaming leathers will harmonize with the luster in suits of silk and man-made fibers.

Lightness and trim lines in shoes will be highlighted in tropical leathers. These leathers which cut the weight of shoes by a third, made their first appearance last spring and their popularity reached landslide proportions by summer.

This year, since they fit in with the fashion trend by making possible a dressier, finer looking as well as more comfortable shoe, they are expected to be a practically unanimous choice in all types of men's shoes.

THE GLEAM in the season's shoes will mean an emphasis on high-polished smooth leathers with a natural gloss accentuated by a hand-rubbing. It doesn't mean, however, that textured leathers which have won a deserved popularity, will now take a back seat. They'll be seen more than ever, both alone and in combination with smooth leathers, but they'll be soft-grained and will have a bright finish.

Tropical suedes, too, will continue in prominence. The suede and smooth leather combination for town may be rich and glossy or dull-finished for contrast.

All-suede casual and dress-casual shoes, on the contrary, will be rough-textured with a long, plushy nap.

In shoes for town, leading colors will be black, medium tan, teal brown, oxford tan, cardeu and dark maple. The mid-low oxford of three-to-four eyelet height with a medium-broad toe will prevail.

Applying Murals

"Do-it-yourself" wall murals are hand-printed on washable canvas. They're pre-pasted in back and ready to sponge and apply quickly.

TEXTURED YARN—Bulky look for spring sweaters is exemplified by this rib-knit, short-sleeved cardigan sparked with antique gold and rhinestone buttons. It's styled with a convertible collar, is made of yarn processed for easy washability without blocking.

Soft, Blended Hues Cue New Stockings For Accessory Role

Taking their cue from spring fashion and color preferences, hosiery stylist have designed new stockings as costume accessories in soft pale hues and color blends.

To harmonize with navy costumes, there are nylons in Wedgewood grays and smoky blue grays.

For the beige family, hose take a new color slant. Hosiery beiges have been blended with warm color tones—rosy beige, cream, gold or apricot beige, and—very new—gray beige.

Nylons in gray tones have also been color warmed. They range from misty pearl grays through pink, blue and mauve grays. And grays with a touch of violet or newly-tinged opalescence.

For the high-fashion violet family nylons show a variety of delicate, fresh-looking mauve tones, including mauve beige, mauve taupe, rose and pink mauves, lavender and violet shadings.

It doesn't mean, however, that textured leather's which have won a deserved popularity, will now take a back seat. They'll be seen more than ever, both alone and in combination with smooth leathers, but they'll be soft-grained and will have a bright finish.

Tropical suedes, too, will continue in prominence. The suede and smooth leather combination for town may be rich and glossy or dull-finished for contrast.

All-suede casual and dress-casual shoes, on the contrary, will be rough-textured with a long, plushy nap.

In shoes for town, leading colors will be black, medium tan, teak brown, oxford tan, cardeau and dark maple. The mid-low oxford of three-to-four-eyelet height with a medium-broad toe will prevail.

Applying Murals

"Do-it-yourself" wall murals are hand-printed on washable canvas. They're pre-pasted in back and ready to sponge and apply quickly.

TEXTURED YARN—Bulky look for spring sweaters is exemplified by this rib-knit, short-sleeved cardigan sparked with antique gold and rhinestone buttons. It's styled with a convertible collar, is made of yarn processed for easy washability without blocking.

Soft, Blended Hues Cue New Stockings For Accessory Role

Taking their cue from spring fashion and color preferences, hosiery stylist have designed new stockings as costume accessories in soft pale hues and color blends.

To harmonize with navy costumes, there are nylons in Wedgewood grays and smoky blue grays.

For the beige family, hose take a new color slant. Hosiery beiges have been blended with warm color tones—rosy beige, cream, gold or apricot beige, and—very new—gray beige.

Nylons in gray tones have also been color warmed. They range from misty pearl grays through pink, blue and mauve grays. And grays with a touch of violet or newly-tinged opalescence.

For the high-fashion violet family nylons show a variety of delicate, fresh-looking mauve tones, including mauve beige, mauve taupe, rose and pink mauves, lavender and violet shadings.

A whale shark may measure from 45 to 60 feet long.

Penguins in the Falkland Islands sometimes bray like donkeys.

Junior Fashions Show Even More Imagination

Junior fashions, always adventurous and imaginative, are especially so this spring, with a wonderful variety of dresses, ensembles and separates in a wide range of colors. Silks, blends, cottons, prints and navy crepes are favorites.

Both full and slim silhouettes are popular, with juniors definitely endorsing the new softened sheath.

Treatments range from permanently knive-pleated skirts and controlled gored fullness to the slim, slow-fitting silhouette and pegged skirt.

Modified princess styles, semi-fitted overblouse dresses, blouson types and new-piece dresses with a two-piece look are other junior choices.

REPLACING the Empire silhouette is the new raised waistline which is not more than one and a half to three inches above the normal waistline. Its variations include pleated cummerbunds, set-in folds and bands, bows and tabs.

Capes are especially popular in cocoon shapes and hipbone or waist lengths, with the emphasis on narrow rather than voluminous types. Many dresses have detachable caplets.

Flannel, often in pearl gray, is the favored fabric for suits.

FOR BREAKFAST—For lovely spring mornings, full-skirted, wrap-around breakfast coat contrasts two colors in the same print.

with round lines and softened skirts preferred.

Short-waist length semi-fitted jackets teamed with peg pleated, four-gore or all-round pleated skirts are popular.

Fitted jackets look fresh with such interesting new details as soft back-blousing, bow trims or self-belts. Double-breasted closings and brass buttons are favored for both fitted and semi-fitted styles.

Skirts take on new interest through high-rise or cummerbund tops, wrap-around effects and buttoned-flap pockets.

HIGH WAISTLINE effects, tiny stitched collars, narrow belts and small button closings give junior coats a youthful look. The favored silhouette is slim-to-moderately-full.

Dolman push-up sleeves, kimona and unmounted sleeves contribute to the popular rounded shoulder look.

Popular new cover-ups for junior ensembles include cut-away boleros, slim coats, blouson capes and jackets, draw-string jackets and tunic coats.

Shapes, Trims Give Belts Distinction

Narrow belts in unusual shapes and wider ones with decorative accents add drama to spring outfits.

In the first category are belts with scalloped edges and belts dipping from high in front to low in back.

Girdle-like belts in suede or kid, for evening, are often draped, tucked or pleated, and usually have giant jeweled buckles.

Sleeves 'Go Soft' In Newest Styles

Sleeves have "gone soft" this spring in keeping with the generally softer dress silhouette of the season.

One favored treatment is the bloused or balloon effect, achieved through lantern shapes with fullness starting directly at the shoulder line.

Youth Club Activities

JUNIOR FAIR BOARD

Nancy Stephenson, Circleville Rd., attended the election meeting of the Ohio State Junior Fair Board with State Fair Manager D. Robert Jones in the youth center on the state fairground.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Stephenson and a senior member of the board.

Past President Neil Milner of Leesburg conducted the meeting, at which these new officers were elected: Larry Eathart of Troy, president; Tom Pierce of West Alexandria, vice-president; Judy Phelps of Mt. Vernon, secretary; Pat Ensign of Montpelier, treasurer; David Guest of Newark, news reporter, and Mary Ann Sidor of Cleveland assistant news reporter.

Much of the discussion centered on the attractions of youth day, the opening day of the fair, Aug. 23.

After the meeting the board members went to the State House where Gov. C. William O'Neill presented each with a certificate of appointment to the junior division of the Fair Board.

Holdup-Slayer Gets Life Imprisonment

CINCINNATI (AP)—Denver Powell was sentenced in criminal court Tuesday to life imprisonment for the holdup - slaying of John Schreck in 1949.

Powell was convicted of first degree murder in the case but the jury recommended mercy, making the life sentence mandatory.

New Handbags Good Matches For Costumes

Handbags are perfect costume coordinates this season. They're flat, for becoming wear with full capes and cape-like fashions, and soft in look, for harmony with softly pleated, tucked or draped costumes.

Shapes are simple, with the elongated square or elongated rectangle predominating.

Trim is planned to emphasize the shape. This means a simple frame in gold, silver or leather, and a simple closing. Small tabs, bands or insets of contrasting leather texture and trapunto work are also in order.

The range of leather textures for daytime handbags is wider than ever. There are deep-grained broad-tail (especially new in spring colors), soft-grained or pebbly calf, fine fibered and petal-smooth calf with a high sheen and, for casual wear, an extra-plushy reverse calf.

Pale beiges and grays are leading colors.

New Handbags Good Matches For Costumes

Handbags are perfect costume coordinates this season. They're flat, for becoming wear with full capes and cape-like fashions, and soft in look, for harmony with softly pleated, tucked or draped costumes.

Shapes are simple, with the elongated square or elongated rectangle predominating.

Trim is planned to emphasize the shape. This means a simple frame in gold, silver or leather, and a simple closing. Small tabs, bands or insets of contrasting leather texture and trapunto work are also in order.

The range of leather textures for daytime handbags is wider than ever. There are deep-grained broad-tail (especially new in spring colors), soft-grained or pebbly calf, fine fibered and petal-smooth calf with a high sheen and, for casual wear, an extra-plushy reverse calf.

Pale beiges and grays are leading colors.

SPRING SEPARATES—For good sports to mix and match are spring separates of cotton madras. Solid color sleeveless blouse and slim skirt can be worn together, are shown here teamed with full skirt and scoop-necked blouse in a multi-color stripe — another good twosome.

Teener Shoes Go Elegant for Spring

Teen-age feet are going elegant for spring. Flats and casuals, long favored as teen footwear, are newly shaped, and elegantly trimmed with all the finesses of an evening slipper. Chief colors are the beige to brown range, with brilliant orange and green shades as well as black and white, alone or combined. Softer leathers are featured, and leather linings are a part of the color effect. Often, the linings are brighter than the shoes. Leathers range from punched pigskin, pebbly grained leather and suede for sportier types to glove-tanned leather, polished and slashed calf and patent—both smooth and newly textured. Shiny black patent with white broadtail-grained leather looks particularly effective. Toe shapes range from the slightly rounded to the longer "sharp-ened" toe to the squared-off one. There are flared demi-tongues, fringed kiltie tongues and finger-gord ones. Many flats have huge pilgrim buckles. Wedges, too have gone dressy, appearing in printed leather and white smooth or crushed leather with gold trim.

Light Ideas Lead in New Luggage, Travel Styles

Both travel wear and travel gear take to the heights of fashion this season, with the feminine traveler finding that her luggage as well as her apparel is "light in weight, light in looks."

Fashions that are light in color go along with the spring preference for pastels, and are newly practical for travel because of the ever-increasing number of easy-care cottons, synthetics and blends.

Lightweight fabrics find their place in travel wear, too, for this is a season when silks, silk-look materials and tissue-weight wools have great popularity.

Packable knits, separates, suits and ensembles all are important in the travel picture.

As for luggage, designers in this field have thought in terms of light-looking, streamlined bags for travelers. Corners have been rounded off and heavy reinforcements replaced by newer body materials.

For a well-coordinated look, luggage coverings are in keeping with current fashions and colors.

The garment carrier, long a favorite for light weight and easy packability, shows many new features. For example, carriers are now equipped with stand-up frames which prevent the bag from slumping over when it stands alone. And the frames usually fold down to small size for storing.

Matching cases without the fold-down feature are often constructed so that each successive size fits inside its larger companion, to save storage space.

IN ADDITION, outside accessory pockets eliminate fumbling through the entire bag to find a wanted blouse or a pair of shoes.

Fabrics for garment carriers run a full range, including those which match automobile upholstery coverings.

Hardside luggage is establishing itself as a fashion accessory.

An almost unlimited selection of colors is now possible in leather, plastic or treated materials which can take a travel beating and show no scars.

Luggage of every type, from train case through trunk size, has been designed for lighter weight, in many materials.

Simplicity Keynotes Headgear for Teens

Simplicity stars in teen hats for spring.

Lightweight straws, felts and synthetics flatter young heads in pastels, white or natural shades, and are seldom trimmed with more than a grosgrain band ending in a bow or streamer.

For dress-up, teen hats sometimes take a flower wreath or nosegay.

Favored Fashion

Juniors favor Tyrolean separates in coordinated colors.

FOR SPRING—Cropped jacket, gently fitted, and rounded, low-collared collarline are style notes for this suit.

Length Is Varied For Junior Formals

Formals for juniors display variety in length as well as style this spring. There's new emphasis on floor lengths and in between lengths.

Juniors like the new look of slim-skirted formals ending about eight inches from the floor. There's interest, too, in irregular hemlines, high waist lines, marked with bands, roses and floating panels, and the back-moving overskirt treatment for slender formals.

Soft, lady-like styling in such light, airy fabrics as chiffon, silk organza, lace and eyelet are favored.

Pennant Races
Look Same as Last Season

Expert Says Injury
Only Thing in Sight
To Defeat Yankee '9'

By ED WILKS
AP Baseball Expert

NEW YORK (AP) — It looks like more of the same in the 1957 major league pennant races.

In the National League, it's Brooklyn, Milwaukee, Cincinnati and pick 'em.

In the American, only injury — not Cleveland, Chicago or Detroit — appears capable of interrupting the New York Yankees' reign.

The national league goes into its 82nd season in two weeks with an isolation booth question hanging over each of the contenders. The pennant rides with the answer.

It's a familiar and irritating question for Brooklyn's defending champions — Can the old men do it again? Specifically, can Sal Maglie come anywhere close, at 40, to the magnificent Maglie of last season? Is Roy Campanella's hand back in business? Can Pee Wee Reese, butted by injury all spring, stay in one piece at 37? Can the Dodgers get along with out Jackie Robinson — and Carl Erskine, if his arm proves helpless?

For the Braves, who went to the final day of the season before losing the 1956 pennant to the Dodgers, the question is whether Manager Fred Haney's passion for positive thinking can show a profit. Have the Braves come of age? Has Haney, with his talk of "potential" and "hustle," convinced Milwaukee's a n n u a l runners-up they have matured as a result of last season's bitter burnout?

Cincinnati's question is more tangible — and more demanding. Can the Redlegs, who matched the one-season major league home run record with 221 last year, stay explosive enough to cover up a pitching staff that could be a dud? Can Birdie Tebbetts, the National League Manager of the Year in '56, pull a little miracle? A comeback by Joe Nuxhall, a repeat year by 19-game-winner Brooks Lawrence, another fine bullpen job by Hershel Freeman and help from a "sleeper" somewhere on the pitching staff are musts.

If anything scares the Yankees it's the ever present threat of injury to Mickey Mantle, who knocked down the 1956 batting championship, home run crown, runs-batted-in title and a $60,000 salary.

But even with the league's Most Valuable Player on the bench there doesn't appear to be enough on any other club to prevent Manager Casey Stengel from grabbing his eighth pennant. The world champs likely have the Rookie of the Year in outfielder-infielder Tony Kubek to boot.

Terrible Ted
Ends Talking,
Plays Baseball

SARASOTA, Fla. (AP) — Ted Williams, the Boston Red Sox slugger who gets opposing pitchers in trouble with his bat and himself in difficulties with his statements, apparently decided today to concentrate strictly on baseball.

His running three-day bout, in which he blasted the Marine Corps, the U. S. Government and the late Sen. Robert Taft (R-Ohio) among others was history.

Probably no one ever will know if any pressure was brought to bear on Williams for rapping the Marines, but he did an about-face Tuesday and issued a formal apology of some of his remarks of 24 hours earlier.

"For the first time in my career, I am concerned about publication of all-god remarks I made during a discussion at the airport in New Orleans last Sunday night," the statement said.

"I have too many friends and have spent too much time in the Marine Corps not to know that the organization is tops. I want to apologize to anyone who might have been offended by the remarks alleged to me."

The remarks included one to the effect that he had "no use" for the Marines because they recalled him to fight in Korea in 1952.

Of Taft, he said the late senator was a "phony politician," because he refused to try to use his influence (unknown to Ted) to keep Williams from being recalled into the Marines.

Musial Leads Cards
To Rout over Reds

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — "He's hitting so well, it scares me," general manager Frank Lane of the St. Louis Cardinals said Tuesday.

WHS Baseball Prospects Look Good

Spirits High
As 30 Answer
Practice Call

The Washington C. H. baseball Lions, cellar-dwellers last season, may very well be the Cinderella team of the South Central Ohio League this year.

Surprisingly enough, the team's weak performance hasn't affected the team spirit a bit, Coach Herb Russell said. About 30 boys — a spanking good total in anyone's book — showed up for the first practice, Russell said.

What's more, the coach added, a number of them came from that mother lode of good baseball players, the Babe Ruth League. With their services, plus the efforts of the others on hand, Russell said he sees no reason for a repeat of last year's performance.

The accent is on youth, certainly, in the new squad, with at least two positions seemingly sewed up by freshmen. Other first-year students are fighting hard for some of the remaining spots.

FOR THE PITCHING staff, Russell has an odd assortment. There are no boys left over from last year. But there are three good, new pitchers available, two of them experienced.

It's like this: Russell will be counting heavily on the services of Billy Herman, a flashy hurler from Good Hope, spending his first year in the city, and Roger Shackelford, a one-time Washington C. H. boy who spent last season in Dayton.

In addition he'll have Ron Knisley, a basketball craftsman out for his first season of baseball. Knisley has shaped up well, Russell said, and will be able to share some of the pitching chores.

At other positions, things aren't settled yet, but, Russell said, "things are shaping up."

"No boy has a position clinched yet, although some have performed pretty well," Russell emphasized. Top candidate for the catching job is Jack Anders, who held the spot last season. At first base, Russell has a junior, Bob Burris, a sophomore, Dave Korn, and a freshman, Bill Crooks. Korn and Crooks are both Babe Ruth League products.

PAUL COX, an experienced senior is a candidate for the second base slot, but Mike Lawrence, a graduate from the Babe Ruth League, has a chance at it, Russell said.

Freshman Bud Lynch and Senior Emmett Sylvester are the top candidates for the short stop job, Russell said.

At third, Russell probably will be choosing between Bob Huff and Terry Stillings, both products of the Babe Ruth League and both freshmen.

Likely outfielders, Russell said, are Arnold Ward, Dale Campbell and Dick Welsh.

All games will be played at 4 p. m. Home games will be played at the park on Oakland Ave. Here's the schedule for the season:

April 9 — Greenfield (Home)
April 12 — Franklin Heights (Away)

April 16 — Hillsboro (A.)
April 18 — Circleville (H.)
April 23 — Wilmington (H.)
April 26 — Greenfield (A.)

April 30 — Franklin Heights (H.)
May 3 — Hillsboro (H.)
May 7 — Circleville (A.)
May 10 — Wilmington (A.)
May 16 — Frankfort (H.)
May 29 — Frankfort (A.)

Indians Uncover
More Top Hurlers

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — The Cleveland Indians' exhibition games keep turning up what the Tribe has plenty of — pitching talent. Latest standout is John Gray, 29-year-old Floridian who is a veteran of seven minor league seasons.

Gray blanked the New York Giants on one hit for three innings at Las Vegas Tuesday in the opener of the barnstorming trip East, and the Indians came from behind with five runs in three innings off southpaw Pete Burnside and won 11-6.

Prior to right-hander Gray's neat relief of Herb Score, rookies Stan Pital and Dick Tomanek have sparked in exhibition mound duty.

Wisconsin Cites
Spahn as Athlete

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Warren Spahn, brilliant pitching veteran of the Milwaukee Braves, today was named "Wisconsin's Athlete of the Year" in a poll.

The stylist lefthander, who posted his seventh season of 20 or more victories last year, won the honor easily in voting by newspapers and radio and television men in Wisconsin. He received 11 of 24 ballots cast.

Milwaukeean Harvey Kuenn, shortstop for the Detroit Tigers, was second with four votes.

'This Young Fella Kubek'
Sparkling for Yankee Crew

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

It was early February in New York and Casey Stengel was talking of his world champion Yankees when he said, "Now you take this young fella Kubek, and you can't because I got him and he's the closest I've seen who can go and get 'em like DiMaggio."

Tony Kubek, 21, 6-3, 188, born in Milwaukee, was still attached to Denver, where he hit .331 as a shortstop last season.

A month later, he was the rookie phenom of spring training, already tabbed the American League's Rookie of the Year.

Tuesday he banged three hits and drove in the lone run as the Yankees, behind the five-hit pitching of young Johnny Kuck, defeated the Boston Red Sox 1-0.

Kubek, playing center field in place of the injured Mickey Mantle, now has a .333 spring batting average.

Tom Brewer, 0-7 against the Yanks the past two seasons, blanked the champs over the first seven frames. Then a pinch single by Enos Slaughter and a single by Gil McDougald set up Kubek's hit against rookie Jack Spring.

Elsewhere, the St. Louis Cardinals wrapped up Cincinnati 9-2; Loooklyn ended a three-game losing streak with an 11-5 job on Pittsburgh; Warren Spahn became Milwaukee's first nine-inning pitcher, beating Atlanta 8-5; the Philadelphia Phillies rallied to defeat the Chicago White Sox 4-2; Chicago's Cubs beat Baltimore 7-6 in 12 innings; and the Cleveland Indians walloped the New York Giants 11-6.

Stan Musial, having one of his best springs ever, was 5-for-5, including a home run, as the Cardinals produced 17 hits to back up Herm Wehmeier's seven-inning, four-hit job on the Redlegs.

A walk, two singles and Carl Furillo's double made for three first-inning Brooklyn runs off Paul Minner, the first scored off Pirate pitching in 36 innings. Randy Jackson hit a pinch home for the Braves adding a three-run, 400-foot-pull blast. Roger Craig was the starter-winner, with reliever Don Bessent barely surviving a four-run Buc seventh.

The Phils had to wait until Billy Pierce, the White Sox's 20-game winner, left before getting down to business against rookie Jim Derrington. Pierce gave the Phils just one hit in five frames. Three singles and a misjudged pop fly did the damage in a three-run seventh inning.

Gene Baker's home run off southpaw Bill O'Dell won for the Cubs, who had blown a 3-0 lead with Bob Nieman's three-run homer in the eighth that gave the Orioles a 6-4 edge. The Cubs tied it in the ninth.

Weak-hitting Jim Hegan and George Strickland each had a double and a single for the Indians, who overcame a four-run first inning by the Giants. Herb Score, unusually wild, was touched for all six New York runs.

Pennant Races Look Same as Last Season

Expert Says Injury
Only Thing in Sight
To Defeat Yankee '99

By ED WILKS
AP Baseball Expert
NEW YORK (AP) — It looks like more of the same in the 1957 major league pennant races.

In the National League, it's Brooklyn, Milwaukee, Cincinnati and pick 'em.

In the American, only injury — not Cleveland, Chicago or Detroit — appears capable of interrupting the New York Yankees' reign.

The national league goes into its 82nd season in two weeks with an isolation booth question hanging over each of the contenders. The pennant rides with the answer.

It's a familiar and irritating question for Brooklyn's defending champions — Can the old men do it again? Specifically, can Sal Maglie come anywhere close, at 40, to the magnificent Maglie of last season? Is Roy Campanella's head back in business? Can Pee Wee Reese, butted by injury all spring, stay in one piece at 37? Can the Dodgers get along without Jackie Robinson — and Carl Erskine, if his arm proves helpless?

For the Braves, who went to the final day of the season before losing the 1956 pennant to the Dodgers, the question is whether Manager Fred Haney's passion for positive thinking can show a profit. Have the Braves come of age? Has Haney, with his talk of "potential" and "hustle," convinced Milwaukee's annual runners-up they have matured as a result of last season's bitter burnout?

Cincinnati's question is more tangible — and more demanding. Can the Redlegs, who matched the one-season major league home run record with 221 last year, stay explosive enough to cover up a pitching staff that could be a dud? Can Birdie Tebbets, the National League Manager of the Year in '56, pull a little miracle? A comeback by Joe Nuxhall, a repeat year by 19-game winner Brooks Lawrence, another fine bullpen job by Hershel Freeman and help from a "sleeper" somewhere on the pitching staff are musts.

If anything scares the Yankees it's the ever present threat of injury to Mickey Mantle, who knocked down the 1956 batting championship, home run crown, runs-batted-in title and a $60,000 salary.

But even with the league's Most Valuable Player on the bench there doesn't appear to be enough on any other club to prevent Manager Casey Stengel from grabbing his eighth pennant. The world champs likely have the Rookie of the Year in outfielder-infielder Tony Kubek to boot.

Terrible Ted Ends Talking, Plays Baseball

SARASOTA, Fla. (AP) — Ted Williams, the Boston Red Sox slugger who gets opposing pitchers in trouble with his bat and himself in difficulties with his statements, apparently decided today to concentrate strictly on baseball.

His running three-day bout, in which he blasted the Marine Corps, the U. S. Government and the late Sen. Robert Taft (R-Ohio) among others was history.

Probably no one ever will know if any pressure was brought to bear on Williams for rapping the Marines, but he did an about-face Tuesday and issued a formal apology for some of his remarks of 24 hours earlier.

For the first time in my career, I am concerned about publication of all-god remarks I made during a discussion at the airport in New Orleans last Sunday night," the statement said.

"I have too many friends and have spent too much time in the Marine Corps to not know that the organization is tops. I want to apologize to anyone who might have been offended by the remarks alleged to me."

The remarks included one to the effect that he had "no use" for the Marines because they recalled him to fight in Korea in 1952.

Of Taft, he said the late senator was a "phony politician," because he refused to try to use his influence (unknown to Ted) to keep Williams from being recalled into the Marines.

Musial Leads Cards To Rout over Reds

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — "He's hitting so well, it scares me," general manager Frank Lane of the St. Louis Cardinals said Tuesday.

Lane referred to Stan Musial, currently hitting at a .457 spring clip.

Tuesday, Musial, still spry and swatting away at 36, went five-for-five against Cincinnati pitching in a 9-2 Red Bird romp.

Musial pounded a home run and four singles and was joined in the slugging department by Al Dark, Hal Smith and Ken Boyer, each with three hits.

WHS Baseball Prospects Look Good

Spirits High As 30 Answer Practice Call

The Washington C. H. baseball Lions, cellar-dwellers last season, may very well be the Cinderella team of the South Central Ohio League this year.

Surprisingly enough, the team's weak performance hasn't affected the team spirit a bit, Coach Herb Russell said. About 30 boys — a spanking good total in anyone's book — showed up for the first practice, Russell said.

What's more, the coach added, a number of them came from that mother lode of good baseball players, the Babe Ruth League. With their services, plus the efforts of the others on hand, Russell said he sees no reason for a repeat of last year's performance.

The accent is on youth, certainly, in the new squad, with at least two positions seemingly sewed up by freshmen. Other first-year students are fighting hard for some of the remaining spots.

FOR THE PITCHING staff, Russell has an odd assortment. There are no boys left over from last year. But there are three good, new pitchers available, two of them experienced.

It's like this: Russell will be counting heavily on the services of Billy Herman, a flashy hurler from Good Hope, spending his first year in the city, and Roger Shackelford, a one-time Washington C. H. boy who spent last season in Dayton.

In addition he'll have Ron Knisley, a basketball craftsman out for his first season of baseball. Knisley has shaped up well, Russell said, and will be able to share some of the pitching chores.

At other positions, things aren't settled yet, but, Russell said, "things are shaping up."

"No boy has a position clinched yet, although some have performed pretty well," Russell emphasized.

Top candidate for the catching job is Jack Anders, who held the spot last season. At first base, Russell has a junior, Bob Burris, a sophomore, Dave Korn, and a freshman, Bill Crooks. Korn and Crooks are both Babe Ruth League products.

PAUL COX, an experienced senior is a candidate for the second base slot, but Mike Lawrence, a graduate from the Babe Ruth League, has a chance at it, Russell said.

Freshman Bud Lynch and Senior Emmett Sylvester are the top candidates for the short stop job, Russell said.

At third, Russell probably will be choosing between Bob Huff and Terry Stillings, both products of the Babe Ruth League and both freshmen.

Likely outfielders, Russell said, are Arnold Ward, Dale Campbell and Dick Welsh.

All games will be played at 4 p. m. Home games will be played at the park on Oakland Ave.

Here's the schedule for the season:

April 9 — Greenfield (Home)
April 12 — Franklin Heights (Away)
April 16 — Hillsboro (A.)
April 18 — Circleville (H.)
April 23 — Wilmington (H.)
April 26 — Greenfield (A.)
April 30 — Franklin Heights (H.)
May 3 — Hillsboro (H.)
May 7 — Circleville (A.)
May 10 — Wilmington (A.)
May 16 — Frankfort (H.)
May 29 — Frankfort (A.)

Indians Uncover More Top Hurlers

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — The Cleveland Indians' exhibition games keep turning up what the Tribe has plenty of pitching talent. Latest standout is John Gray, 29-year-old Floridian who is a veteran of seven minor league seasons.

Gray blanked the New York Giants on one hit for three innings at Las Vegas Tuesday in the opener of the barnstorming trip East, and the Indians came from behind with five runs in three innings off southpaw Pete Burnside and won 11-6.

Prior to righthander Gray's neat relief of Herb Score, rookies Stan Pital and Dick Tomanek have sparked in exhibition mound duty.

IT'S SO EASY TO PLACE A WANT AD.

'This Young Fella Kubek' Sparkling for Yankee Crew

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

It was early February in New York and Casey Stengel was talking of his world champion Yankees when he said, "Now you take this young fella Kubek, and you can't because I got him and he's the closest I've seen who can go and get 'em like DiMaggio."

Tony Kubek, 21, 6-3, 188, born in Milwaukee, was still attached to Denver, where he hit .331 as a shortstop last season.

A month later, he was the rookie phenom of spring training, already tabbed the American League's Rookie of the Year.

Tuesday he banged three hits and drove in the lone run as the Yankees, behind the five-hit pitching of young Johnny Kucks, defeated the Boston Red Sox 1-0.

Kubek, playing center field in place of the injured Mickey Mantle, now has a .333 spring batting average.

It's Clinic Time for Grid Coaches

While the baseball players are playing baseball, and while the fishermen are fishing, the football coaches, too, have something to do: It's football clinic time.

Head Coach Fred Domenico and members of his staff have taken part in a couple of clinics already this spring, and there are at least three more coming up.

Largest of the three remaining sessions, perhaps, will be the Ohio High School Football coaches Ass'n. clinic in Columbus May 3 and 4. Domenico, along with assistant Herb Russell and Dick Filbin and Athletic Director Clyde Cramer are going to that. Plans aren't quite complete, Domenico said.

THE SAME FOUR are going to another clinic at Ohio University, Athens, April 19 and 20 where Gene Slaughter, head coach at Jackson High School, will be one of the featured speakers. Jack Mollenkopf of Purdue is also on the program there.

Forrest Evashevski of Iowa and Lee Howell of the New York Giants will be featured speakers at a clinic at the University of Cincinnati, to which Domenico and Filbin are going.

Domenico was also at a clinic in Wooster March 16, while he and Filbin went together to a clinic at Upper Arlington last weekend.

Cleveland Arena Jinxes Trotters

CLEVELAND (AP) — Cleveland Arena appears to hold some kind of jinx for the Harlem Globetrotters, who lost to the College All Stars there Tuesday night before $6,000 by a 68-63 score.

It was the fourth straight year the Collegians have won there and the fifth time in eight basketball exhibitions.

Burke Aiming At Repeat In Masters

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — Jackie Burke Jr. has set a line of strategy for his bid to become the first repeat winner of the Masters golf championship—"Play it cozy and hope for the best."

"Nobody ever won this tournament by trying to win it," he said today. "You have to sneak up on it. You have to play it cool and take chances that it's good enough."

The curly-haired offspring of one of the game's greatest pros, who sneaked in with a 289 last year after amateur Ken Venturi's last-day collapse, said he figured the title would be won on the Augusta National's greens.

"The man with the best lag putting touch will win it," he said. "That's why I'd have to stick with fellows like Cary Middlecoff, Ben Hogan, Sam Snead and Jimmy Demaret. They'll usually get down in two from anywhere on the green."

Modesty prevented Burke from saying that the reason he is rated high among the threats is that

Weightlift King Set To Turn Pro

RENO (AP) — Olympic weightlifting champion Paul Anderson sheds his amateur status Thursday in a night club appearance because "there's no place else to go."

"Besides, it costs money to be an amateur," he said expense allowances by the State Department for tours to Moscow and the Middle East were inadequate.

Anderson, 24, of Toccoa, Ga., won the 1956 Olympics gold medal in the heavyweight lifting division and the world title in 1955.

Home Most Responsible For Child's Behavior, Cherry Hill PTA Told

"Each generation should try to raise better children than the previous one. What is good enough for me is not good enough for my children—they've got to do better."

These were the words of Juvenile Court Judge Robert L. Brubaker, speaking at a meeting of the Cherry Hill Parent-Teacher Assn. Tuesday evening at the school.

Judge Brubaker was a member of a panel discussing the responsibilities of the school, the home and the church in child-raising. Other speakers were Mrs. Ralph Child, teacher at Cherry Hill, and the Rev. Don McMillin, pastor of the First Christian Church.

"At least 90 per cent of the child's misbehavior stems from the home," Judge Brubaker said, declaring that "home is the garden spot for developing good character traits."

"SOME PARENTS are too passive or inadequate to deal with their children's mistakes," Judge Brubaker continued, emphasizing his point that "the home is most responsible for the child's behavior."

"What a teacher is more important than what she teaches," Mrs. Child told the group. "You must be something before you can do something," she said.

"Honesty, justice, fairness"—these are the qualities she said must be shown by everyone in the school system from the head of it on down.

Mr. McMillin asserted that families "should attend church together, have prayer in the home and practice Christianity in everyday life."

"SPIRITUAL things are important things," he declared, explaining that "a good set of spiritual values will make us stable citizens."

"No child is born bad," Mr. McMillin emphasized. "With good teaching," he said, "every child can grow into a good adult."

The minister mentioned the preponderance of good people left in the world—there are still many good homes, good schools and good churches, he reminded.

In a question period after the meeting, Judge Brubaker observed that very few children with a regular record of church attendance ever end up in court. Offenders have usually been school problems too, he said.

NEW PTA officers named at the meeting are Mrs. Charles Sheridan, president; Dwight Coffman, vice president; Earl Miller, second vice

Red, White Popular For License Tags

Fashion note: red and white license tags are especially popular for automobiles here this season—especially with the police. Two men were found guilty of driving without 1957 tags by Municipal Court Judge Max G. Dice Wednesday morning.

Clifford A. Perkins, 36, of Boston, Mass., driving an Ohio-registered auto, was fined $10 and costs after he pleaded guilty to the charge, while Albert A. Amole, 40, of Bainbridge, was fined $5 and costs after he pleaded guilty to the same charge. Amole's fine was suspended.

Two other traffic fines were suspended by Judge Dice. Raleigh Stepter, 33, of 531 Harrison St., was given a suspended $5 fine after pleading guilty to a charge of failure to yield the right of way. Pleading guilty to a charge of running a red light was Everett McCandish, 68, of Middletown, who received a suspended $5 fine.

Bloominaburg Senior Play Friday Night

An authentic, Grade A, No. 1, simon-pure Western burro, name of Niobe, plays the lead in the Bloominaburg High School Senior play, "Half Past Teen," to be presented at 8:15 p. m. Friday in the school.

In the cast are Carol Cramer, Marilyn Rhoades, Shirley Williams, Brenda Emery, Gary McConaghey, George Iden and Darrel Mickle.

Actually, Niobe won't be there in the flesh. But her voice, on record, creates quite a stir and changes the fortunes of a half dozen characters in the cast.

It seems that Candy Norton, played by Carol Cramer, is attempting to win a service club scholarship, but her efforts are being fought by Lois Midgeley, played by Brenda Emery.

THINGS ARE just getting really difficult for Candy, when Niobe, along with Sam Bullitt and Galsworthy, played by George Iden and Darrel Mickle, march in out of the west. Their appearance on the scene changes everything, but no body who's seen the play is telling how.

Under the direction of Mrs. Elton B. Elliott, Bloominaburg English teacher, the play is being sponsored to raise money for the senior class trip to New York and Washington.

Jerry McCoy is in charge of ticket sales, and Johnny Hixon and Tom Slager are handling properties. Make up and wardrobe work is being done by Donna Harris, Tillie Lee and Geneva Leach.

Newtown Firm Low Bidder on Two Fayette Road Jobs

The John Jergensen Co., of Newtown, submitted a low bid of $32,980 Tuesday on two Fayette County resurfacing projects, totaling 6.91 miles.

Included is a 5.06-mile stretch of Route 70 (Greenfield Rd.) between Wabash Creek and the Highland County line, and a 1.85-mile section of Route 62 between Snowhill Rd. and Mark Rd.

The first project is in Union and Perry townships, the second in Concord and Union townships.

The Ohio Department of Highways has set Aug. 1 as the completion date on the projects.

The Fayette County projects were among 25, with a total estimated cost of $1,398,478, for which bids were opened in Columbus Tuesday.

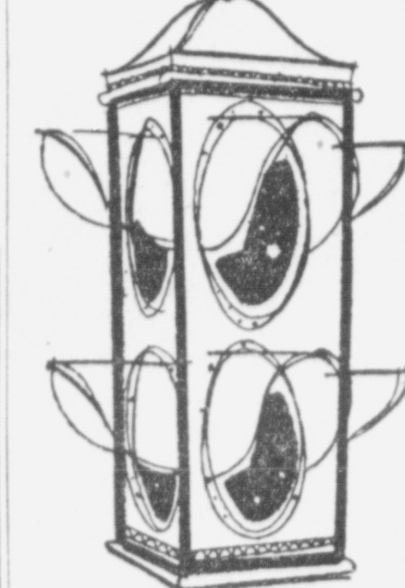

The total work involves 129 miles of roadway and five bridges.

No One Hurt In Collision

No one was injured in an auto mishap at the corner of East and Sycamore Sts. Tuesday afternoon. It was the only accident anywhere in the county during the 24-hour period.

Mrs. Elsie Haynes, 42, of 729 Eastern Ave., reported she had started to turn from East St. into Sycamore, when she collided with an auto driven by Mrs. Barbara E. Palmer, 412 E. Elm St., which was coming out of Sycamore. Mrs. Palmer said she had stopped for the intersection when the collision occurred.

Damage was limited to the left headlight and left signal light of Mrs. Haynes' car. Mrs. Palmer's auto was not damaged.

Model Airplane Club Formed by 32 Members

With the coming of spring, model airplane fans here have come out of enforced winter hibernation with some big plans for opening the door to their hobby to more youngsters.

The idea first began to take form about two weeks ago when a few of the fans got together to talk over the possibilities of forming a model airplane club. After consolidating their ideas, they set a time for another meeting to see what the reaction would be.

The response, and the turnout for the meeting in the IOOF Hall on N. Main St., exceeded by far their expectations—32 boys, youths and young men were there. They were full of enthusiasm and anxious to get going.

Before the evening ended, the Washington C. H. Gashoppers Club had been formed.

THE CLUB'S purpose is two-fold. (1) provide a means for model plane enthusiasts to get together and (2) open the door to their hobby to youngsters, who are interested, but who lack the means to take up the model plane hobby or the guidance to carry it on if they did have.

One of the originators of the club said: "We thought this would give these boys something better to do than loaf around on the streets... kids without an interest, or a hobby, often get into trouble before they know it. If these boys don't have the money to get started with a model plane, we'll help them out in any way we can."

He explained that by "we," he meant the other members of the club.

Between the first and second meetings of the group, the originators took up their problem of finding a place to fly their model planes with the Chamber of Commerce and the city Recreation

Commission. They reported at the second, and organization, meeting that arrangements had been made for them to have their "flying circle" at the park on Millikan and Oakland Aves.

A "flying circle," it was explained, is a place where the planes may be flown by their owners in a circle from the end of a leash, much as a kite is flown.

MEMBERS decided the club should be headed by three supervisors, rather than a president. Calvin Otty was chosen for the head supervisor with Earl Hilton and Charles Dadds, a WHS senior, as the other two.

Gene Cook was named the treasurer and Mrs. Otty agreed to serve as secretary.

Hilton said he felt the Gashopper Club would give boys with mechanical abilities an opportunity to put them to use and that this could give them a start in life later on.

The dues were graduated according to age: $1 a month for boys up to 15 years old, $1.50 a month for youths up to 18 and $2 a month for men.

Hilton said the dues would be used for routine expenses and to help boys get started in the hobby. Admitting that "you can get some money tied up in a model plane," he added that the older men would help some of the boys sort of ready cash.

Pork Carcass Exhibit Is Planned for Fair

A pork carcass display is to be one of the features of the market show at the Fair here next July.

Fayette County Pork Producers Assn. members agreed at Tuesday night's meeting to make arrangements for the display and outlined plans for it. "It should be of considerable educational value and add to the interest in the show," an association statement said.

Making up the entire display will be three live hogs of the market grades 1, 2 and 3 and a display of a half-carass of three similar market hogs in these grades.

In keeping with the association's Junior Fair promotion program, the members voted to put up showmanship trophies for both the junior and senior classes.

Plans for the All Ohio Pork Picnic, which is to be held Sept. 14 at the Fairground here, were discussed. It is co-sponsored by the Pork Producers Assn. here and the Ohio Commercial Pork Producers Assn.

A discussion of feeding and pig parlors was led by two guests at the meeting, Luther Letters and Dave Deppner.

Home Most Responsible For Child's Behavior, Cherry Hill PTA Told

"Each generation should try to raise better children than the previous one. What is good enough for me is not good enough for my children—they've got to do better."

These were the words of Juvenile Court Judge Robert L. Brubaker, speaking at a meeting of the Cherry Hill Parent-Teacher Assn. Tuesday evening at the school.

Judge Brubaker was a member of a panel discussing the responsibilities of the school, the home and the church in child-rearing. Other speakers were Mrs. Ralph Child, teacher at Cherry Hill, and the Rev. Don McMillin, pastor of the First Christian Church.

"At least 90 per cent of the child's misbehavior stems from the home," Judge Brubaker said, declaring that "home is the garden spot for developing good character traits."

"SOME PARENTS are too passive or inadequate to deal with their children's mistakes," Judge Brubaker continued, reemphasizing his point that "the home is most responsible for the child's behavior."

"What a teacher is more important than what she teaches," Mrs. Child told the group. "You must be something before you can do something," she said.

"Honesty, justice, fairness"—these are the qualities she said must be shown by everyone in the school system from the head of it on down.

Mr. McMillin asserted that families "should attend church together, have prayer in the home and practice Christianity in every day life."

"SPIRITUAL things are important things," he declared, explaining that "a good set of spiritual values will make us stable citizens."

"No child is born bad," Mr. McMillin emphasized. "With good teaching," he said, "every child can grow into a good adult."

The minister mentioned the preponderance of good people left in the world—there are still many good homes, good schools and good churches, he reminded.

In a question period after the meeting, Judge Brubaker observed that very few children with a regular record of church attendance ever end up in court. Offenders have usually been school problems too, he said.

NEW PTA officers named at the meeting are Mrs. Charles Sheridan, president; Dwight Coffman, vice president; Earl Miller, second vice

Red, White Popular For License Tags

Fashion note: red and white license tags are especially popular for automobiles here this season—especially with the police. Two men were found guilty of driving without 1957 tags by Municipal Court Judge Max G. Dice Wednesday morning.

Clifford A. Perkins, 36, of Boston, Mass., driving an Ohio-registered auto, was fined $10 and costs after he pleaded guilty to the charge, while Albert A. Amole, 40, of Bainbridge, was fined $5 and costs after he pleaded guilty to the same charge. Amole's fine was suspended.

Two other traffic fines were suspended by Judge Dice. Raleigh Stepler, 33, of 531 Harrison St., was given a suspended $5 fine after pleading guilty to a charge of failing to yield the right of way. Pleading guilty to a charge of running a red light was Everett McCandish, 68, of Middletown, who received a suspended $5 fine.

Bloomington Senior Play Friday Night

An authentic, Grade A. No. 1, simon-pure Western burro, name of Niobe, plays the lead in the Bloomington High School Senior play, "Half Past Teen," to be presented at 8:15 p. m. Friday in the school.

In the cast are Carol Cramer, Marilyn Rhoades, Shirley Williams, Brenda Emery, Gary McConaughy, George Iden and Darrel Mickle.

Actually, Niobe won't be there in the flesh. But her voice, on record, creates quite a stir and changes the fortunes of a half dozen characters in the cast.

It seems that Candy Norton, played by Carol Cramer, is attempting to win a service club scholarship, but her efforts are being fought by Lois Midgely, played by Brenda Emery.

THINGS ARE just getting really difficult for Candy, when Niobe, along with Sam Bullitt and Galsworthy, played by George Iden and Darrel Mickle, march in out of the west. Their appearance on the scene changes everything, but nobody's seen the play is telling how.

Under the direction of Mrs. Elton B. Elliott, Bloomington English teacher, the play is being sponsored to raise money for the senior class trip to New York and Washington.

Jerry McCoy is in charge of ticket sales, and Johnny Hixon and Tom Slager are handling properties. Make "no and wardrobe work is being done by Donna Harris, Tillie Lee and Geneva Leach.

Newtown Firm Low Bidder on Two Fayette Road Jobs

The John Jergensen Co., of Newtown, submitted a low bid of $32,980 Tuesday on two Fayette County resurfacing projects, totaling 6.91 miles.

Included is a 5.06-mile stretch of Route 70 (Greenfield Rd.) between Wabash Creek and the Highland County line, and a 1.85-mile section of Route 62 between Snowhill Rd. and Mark Rd.

The first project is in Union and Perry townships, the second in Concord and Union townships. The Ohio Department of Highways has set Aug. 1 as the completion date on the projects.

The Fayette County projects were among 25, with a total estimated cost of $1,398,478, for which bids were opened in Columbus Tuesday.

The total work involves 129 miles of roadway and five bridges.

No One Hurt In Collision

No one was injured in an auto mishap at the corner of East and Sycamore Sts. Tuesday afternoon. It was the only accident anywhere in the county during the 24-hour period.

Mrs. Elsie Haynes, 42, of 729 Eastern Ave., reported she had started to turn from East St. into Sycamore, when she collided with an auto driven by Mrs. Barbara E. Palmer, 412 E. Elm St., which was coming out of Sycamore. Mrs. Palmer said she had stopped for the intersection when the collision occurred.

Damage was limited to the left headlight and left signal light of Mrs. Haynes' car. Mrs. Palmer's auto was not damaged.

Model Airplane Club Formed by 32 Members

With the coming of spring, model airplane fans here have come out of enforced winter hibernation with some big plans for opening the door to their hobby to more youngsters.

The idea first began to take form about two weeks ago when a few of the fans got together to talk over the possibilities of forming a model airplane club. After consolidating their ideas, they set a time for another meeting to see what the reaction would be.

The response, and the turnout for the meeting in the 100F Hall on N. Main St., exceeded by far their expectations—32 boys, youths and young men were there. They were full of enthusiasm and anxious to get going.

Before the evening ended, the Washington C. H. Gashoppers Club had been formed.

THE CLUB'S purpose is two-fold. (1) provide a means for model plane enthusiasts to get together and (2) open the door to their hobby to youngsters, who are interested, but who lack the means to take up the model plane hobby or the guidance to carry it on if they did have.

One of the originators of the club said: "We thought this would give these boys something better to do than loaf around on the streets... kids without an interest, or a hobby, often get into trouble before they know it. 'If these boys don't have the money to get started with a model plane, we'll help them out in any way we can.'"

He explained that by "we," he meant the other members of the club.

Between the first and second meetings of the group, the originators took up their problem of finding a place to fly their model planes with the Chamber of Commerce and the city Recreation

Commission. They reported at the second, and organization, meeting that arrangements had been made for them to have their "flying circle" at the park on Millikan and Oakland Aves.

A "flying circle," it was explained, is a place where the planes may be flown by their owners in a circle from the end of a leash, much as a kite is flown.

MEMBERS decided the club should be headed by three supervisors, rather than a president. Calvin Otty was chosen for the head supervisor with Earl Hilton and Charles Dadds, a WHS senior, as the other two.

Gene Cook was named the treasurer and Mrs. Otty agreed to serve as secretary.

Hilton said he felt the Gashopper Club would give boys with mechanical abilities an opportunity to put them to use and that this could give them a start in life later on.

The dues were graduated according to age: $1 a month for boys up to 15 years old, $1.50 a month for youths up to 18 and $2 a month for men.

Hilton said the dues would be used for routine expenses and to help boys get started in the hobby. Admitting that "you can get some money tied up in a model plane," he added that the older men would help some of the boys short of ready cash.

Pork Carcass Exhibit Is Planned for Fair

A pork carcass display is to be one of the features of the market show at the Fair here next July.

Fayette County Pork Producers Assn. members agreed at Tuesday night's meeting to make arrangements for the display and outlined plans for it. "It should be of considerable educational value and add to the interest in the show," an association statement said.

Making up the entire display will be three live hogs of the market grades 1, 2 and 3 and a display of a half-carass of three similar market hogs in these grades.

In keeping with the association's Junior Fair promotion program, the members voted to put up showmanship trophies for both the junior and senior classes.

Plans for the All Ohio Pork Picnic, which is to be held Sept. 14 at the Fairground here, were discussed. It is co-sponsored by the Pork Producers Assn. here and the Ohio Commercial Pork Producers Assn.

A discussion of feeding and pig parlors was led by two guests at the meeting, Luther Letters and Dave Deppner.
